CITY OK'S 'PANORAMA' PROJECT

PARCEL ON EAST SIDE FOR HOSPITAL

Mary's Help Hospital, located at 145 Guerrero street, San Francisco, since 1912, has taken an option on approximately 7½ acres in the heart of Daly City as a new location for the hospital, Sister Hermine, Administrator, announced today.

The property is an irregular-shaped parcel bounded by Brunswick street, Wellington avenue and already occupied land which faces Hillside and East Vista avenues. It touches Peoria street at one point, Just off Mission street, the site is easily accessible and available to public transportation.

If engineering studies show that the ground is suitable for a multi-story building, the site will probably be purchased as the location for the new hospital, Sister Hermine said.

A decision to move to a new location resulted from the need for major reconstruction or rebuilding of the present hospital and a survey of hospital needs in San Francisco and vicinity by Dr. Anthony J. J. Rourke, noted hospital consultant of New York.

Dr. Rourke recommended against rebuilding the hospital on its present site and recommended relocating it in the Daly City-Westlake area as "the area with the highest population without hospital facilities."

The proposed new Mary's Help Hospital would have 250 beds and 50 bassinets. The hospital has 175 beds and 40 bassinets at its present site.

Mary's Help Hospital is a fully accredited general hospital, operated and managed by the Daughters of Charity of St. Vincent de Paul.

BUILDER Mike Callan points to extent of full-scale grading operations at Callan Park, due west of Sharp Park road and Skyline boulevard. Arthur "Buzz" Haskins' crews, using more than a dozen pieces of heavy equipment, are leveling the ridges and filling in canyons in a project that involves a total of almost 700 acres between Skyline and Junipero Serra. The Callan Company was ready to build its first home in Unit I last month, but the developers are waiting results of the August 16 referendum election to see if Daly City residents will vote to keep the big tract a part of the community.

STANDARD BUILDERS OF SAN FRANCISCO

Council Cites Terms On 100-Acre Tract; 700 Homes Expected

Daly City councilmen adopted Ordinance No. 520 for the annexation of the 100-acre "Panorama" subdivision which will bring 700 ultra-modern homes to the slope of the Crocker hills northeast of town.

Representatives of Standard Building Company, the San Francisco - headquartered firm that has done millions of dollars of residential construction throughout the Bay Area, firmed their written agreement after a two-hour session.

The council's negotiations with Panorama began late last year. Grading on the first stage of the tract is going full speed. Construction reportedly will commence by the first of next year. Standard intends to complete from 75 to 100 homes a year. Their purchase of the 100 acres from Crocker Estate, which owns aprpoximately 5000 undeveloped acres coveted by scores of residential and light - industry minded builders, marks the first major residential transaction involving the Crocker lands.

There were no legal or "otherwise" protests aired by Daly City residents on the Panorama annexation. The 100 - acre tract officially will become a part of Daly City on July 30.

Standard officials have outlined preliminary street and lot plans and soon will discuss the amount of a performance bond to be deposited with the city when the subdivision maps are ready for action by the planning commission and council.

Via the written agreement, drafted by City Manager Edward Frank and City Attorney Paul Hupf, Panorama will follow the city's present subdivision ordinance, covering the installation of streets, sidewalks, curbs and gutters, storm drains, etcetera. Water service will be exclusively under the city's control and sanitation will be handled by the north county district.

As per Callan Park annexation terms, Standard will be required to give Daly City a 100x100 foot site and construct a reservoir to serve the development. The city has agreed to reimburse the developer for the reservoir over a 10 - year period with a 4 percent interest rate—identical to the Callan Park arrangement.

Additionally, the city will reimburse Panorama for the installation of all water mains over 8 inches in diameter and for all required water pumping stations. Standard will replace portions of two water lines—on Frankfort street and Bellevue avenue. These will be enlarged to six inches each. The city will reimburse the builder for this work.

Park and school sites present no particular problem. Standard will set aside two areas, of three lots each, for recreation purposes—tots' lots, and will deliver these fully improved, plus pay for and install playground equipment.

Jefferson Elementary School District has discussed a 10-acre school site with Standard and the developers are working with the district to pinpoint a site on level ground contiguous to the subdivision. The high school district also has projected its eventual needs in this area in conferences with Standard representatives.

Instead of setting aside land for a firehouse, the city incorporated in the written agreement Standard's offer to rehabilitate and reconstruct the old volunteers' firehouse at the corner of Peoria and Roosevelt streets—not far from the main entrance to the subdivision. Dormitories are included in Standard's plans for this structure.

Mayor Frank Pacelli complimented Standard representatives following the council's finalizing the annexation. Councilman Bob St. Clair termed the agreement "the best we have ever drafted in negotiations with builders."

He further pointed out that the agreement was "considerably similar to our agreement with Callan Company . . . although Panorama will be much smaller in size . . . but in comparison to other agreements in years past, the latest agreements have been the best as far as the city is concerned."

Standard Builders

Standard Builders, whose 100-acre "Panorama" subdivision will bring 700 to 800 new homes to Daly City, have done considerable construction in San Francisco and on the Peninsula. The San Francisco firm built 500 homes (eight subdivisions) on Twin Peaks, 250 at Miraloma Park near Mt. Davidson, and 800 homes in Sunshine Gardens, South San Francisco. In addition, Standard developed the Forest Knolls tract in San Francisco which will have 700 homes when completed.

FRANK VERDUCCI, LYAL INGERSOLL NAMED SCHOOL BOARDS' CHAIRMEN

Frank Verducci, 70 Westdale avenue, Westlake, a counsellor and teacher at Everett Junior High School in San Francisco, was elected chairman of the Jefferson Elementary School District board of trustees last Friday.

Verducci, vice chairman of the board this past year, has served two years as a trustee. He will start his 14th year of teaching come September, Verducci and his wife Mary have three children: Barbara, 16, a senior; Robert 11, a sixth grader; and Billy, 7, a second grader, all attend parochial school.

He has served on the Daly City Boy Scout Council and is a member of the San Francisco Coaches Association and Classroom Teachers Association. He is a member of Phi Delta Kappa, national education fraternity.

Frank, brother of councilman Joseph Verducci, served in the Air Force as a First Lieutenant from 1942 through 1946. He flew over Hiroshima, on what he termed a "snooping" mission, three weeks after the dropping of the atomic bomb.

Other officers voted into office were: vice chairman and trustee representative Wayne Douglas, clerk Tom Noonan and vice clerk Joseph Lewkowitz.

Lyal Ingersoll, 439 Crocker avenue, a former chairman of the Jefferson Union High School District board of trustees from 1952-57, was re-elected to that office last Friday.

Ingersoll took over the reins as chairman from Elio Fontana. Lyal was first elected to the board of trustees in May of 1951. He is a past Master of the Crocker Lodge and a member of the Daly City Lions Club, having served on the board of directors. Ingersoll is a past president of "Social 60," a Temple Methodist Church group.

He was recently honored by the Jefferson High School PTA, receiving a life membership for his outstanding work in the educational field. A contractor, he belongs to AFL-CIO No. 483. He has been a journeyman carpenter since 1924.

He and his wife Ann have one son, Ira, 17, a Jefferson High School senior. Mrs. Ingersoll has been active in the Girl Scouts program for the past 25 years.

Other officers elected were vice chairman Dr. Robert Rockstein, clerk Mrs. Anna Eason, trustee representative James Cooper and secretary Superintendent Ed Morgan.

St. Clair Explains Sewer District Tax Plan On Callan Park

"If Callan Park comes into the North San Mateo County Sanitation District, the people there may pay a higher tax rate than the rest of Daly City, but our basic tax rate charged in Daly City will be unchanged," District Chairman Bob St. Clair told the Sanitation District Board of Directors last week.

St. Clair said that the sanitation district sets up special tax districts when any special area in the city causes any special expenses.

"If the city annexes a new area—like Callan Park or St. Frances Heights—then we have that area pay the basic tax rate. If there are any added costs, then we set up a separate tax district in that area and levy an extra tax on those people. It is never added to the taxes of anyone else in the District."

St. Clair said that people who claim that the increased Sanitation District taxes are caused by annexations to the city are wrong.

St. Clair was backed up by District Engineer C. L. White, who told the District directors that improvements would be required even if Callan Park were never connected to the existing district.

He said that the district must add a secondary digestor, a sludge degritter, a centrifuge building and an extension to the district's ocean outfall line.

"Surveys show a serious need for a new digestor," St. Clair said. "We must add it now before we have real trouble."

St. Clair explained that with-

TV Man Gore Appointed To City Planners

Westlake resident Del Gore, 1272 Southgate avenue, employed by Station KGO-TV in sales and promotion, last Thursday night was appointed to the Daly City Planning Commission by Councilman Bob St. Clair.

Gore fills the unexpired term of real estate man Art Colvin who resigned two weeks ago due to business commitments.

Gore joins chairman Dick Dwyer, John Schaeffer, Tony Masini and Roy Foster on the city board.

On vacation at present, Gore was unavailable for comment regarding his appointment and for background information.

FOURTH OF JULY ROUND-UP

One Daly City Woman Killed During Trip; Few Accidents Here

Daly City's safety record remained in good standing over the Fourth of July weekend as only one injury accident was reported here. This is even less than is usually recorded on any weekend not having a holiday.

One Daly City woman, Helen Peterson, 301 Citrus avenue, was killed enroute to Minnesota last Friday. Her husband Carl and daughter Suzy were seriously injured in the head-on crash which occurred approximately 400 miles from here in Placer County.

Funeral services were held Tuesday in Minnesota for the woman. Her husband and daughter are currently recuperating at Kaiser Hospital. Two other children received minor injuries.

Only injury here was to Shirley A. Holland, 17, 717 Beechwood drive, a passenger in the auto of Gene A. Bordegaray, 17, 820 Larchmont drive, Colma. The collision occurred at 12 p.m. Saturday on Mission street at Citrus avenue. Otto H. Aansted, 68, 179 Citrus avenue, was the driver of the other auto. No citations were given.

In a non-injury accident, Henry Loustalot, 28, 11 Naglee street, San Francisco, a salesman, struck the guard rail at the off-ramp on Skyline boulevard, leading to the Edgemar freeway, and tore down 25 feet of railing.

The incident occurred at 12:25 a.m. Sunday. Major damage was done to the front of Loustalot's auto.

Civic Celebration Appointments Due At July 13 Meeting

Chairmen for the many activities planned for Daly City's 50th Birthday Week Celebration in May of next year will be appointed at the celebration steering committee meeting on Wednesday night, July 13, at City Hall, starting at 8.

Arthur Bodien and Mel Battye, celebration co-chairmen, said today that the individual event chairmen will soon pick their sub-committees to work on each activity.

Mapped for the May festivities are a Grand Ball, queen contest, giant parade, fireworks display, flower and fashion shows, bowling and golf tournaments, beard growing contest, special youth activities, et cetera.

Daly City's fiftieth birthday as a city falls in March of 1961 but the celebration will be held two months later for weather and "better attendance" reasons.

All persons who would like to serve on the general planning committee are invited to attend all meetings of the steering committee.

Burglars Take $157

B&G Grocery Store, 584 Hillside boulevard, was burglarized of $157 sometime Tuesday evening.

Clerk Charles McGuire, 631 Florence street, reported the theft to police and stated that nothing else in the store was disturbed. Officer David Johnstone said the suspects gained entry by sawing bars on a rear window with a hacksaw.

Chamber Invites Anti-Callan Park Representatives

Board of directors of Daly City's Chamber of Commerce, already on record approving the city council's annexation of Callan Park, have invited the developer and "leaders of those against annexation" to their meeting next Thursday, July 14, at noon in the banquet room of Westlake Bowl.

Chamber publicity spokesman Fred Martin today announced that the board "have yet to hear from the leaders of the group opposing the annexation."

"The board of directors officially have invited Fred J. Walker, chairman of the Citizens Committee for Good Government, to next week's meeting to hear his group's arguments," said Martin.

The status of Callan Park will be decided by Daly City residents in a special referendum election on Auguest 16.

COUNCIL MEETING

Regular meeting of the Daly City council is scheduled next Monday evening, July 11, at 8 o'clock, City Manager Edward Frank today reminded residents. Regular meeting of the city planning commission will be held Tuesday night next week, also at 8 o'clock.

Budget Being Studied

City Council Votes New Fiscal Outlays

Daly City councilmen last week got the fiscal year off to a solvent start by authorizing the finance director to spend $337,309.50 in funds the next two months in advance of final adoption of the new budget and tax rate.

City Manager Edward Frank explained that passage of the resolution was necessary to cover operating costs and salaries for July and August. The $337,309.50 represents fixed expenditures and about one sixth of the proposed new budget which totals $2,206,809 and includes a $247,030 capital outlay program.

The new budget, which should be finalized by the council within two weeks (after various personnel and salary decisions are made), is $41,324 higher than last year's adopted budget which totaled $2,165,145 and included $285,810 appropriated for capital outlay.

Salaries alone in the new budget, as proposed by the city manager, total $1,179,357 compared to $1,116,880 last fiscal year. The $62,477 for additional salaries takes into account a proposed 3 percent across the board cost-of-living increase for the city's 190 employees, proposed wage boosts for certain department heads, and a few job re-classifications.

The city manager proposes no increases in personnel over positions assigned in the previous fiscal budget. Eleven employees who were scheduled to be hired a year ago, and weren't, are included in the new budget.

As of today, however, the council had not finished its discussions on personnel and salary considerations.

Burglars Go 'Door To Door' To Get $500 From Tavern

Burglars had to pry open three doors but ended their quest for money by taking $500 from Gino's Club, a tavern at 7123 Mission street, between 2:30 and 5 a.m. last Sunday.

Node Taddie, an employee at the club, reported the break-in to police. Officer Robert Stables said the thieves pried open three doors before gaining entry to the main bar area. Owner Gino Baldocchi, 515 Miller street, South San Francisco, said $200 was taken from the register and $300 hidden in the storeroom was also missing.

St. Clair Explains

out any further annexations Daly City will grow to 70,000 persons in 10 years. He said that the existing sewage treatment plant is rated to serve 55,000 people but can actually take care of many less than that in Daly City because of the high percentage of solids introduced into Daly City sewers by garbage disposal units.

He explained that the present digestor unit must be cleaned out and that in a residential community like Daly City this can be done only by adding a new unit.

"We can't by-pass it and run raw sewage, and we can't turn it off—it takes four months to clean it."

St. Clair said that a final meeting to formulate the district budget, incliding a special levy to cover these improvements, will be held July 11 at the sanitation plant in Westlake off Lake Merced boulevard.

Val's Burglarized Of $1200 Cash, Customers Bills

Val's Redwood Room, 89th street and Junipero Serra boulevard, was burglarized of more than $1200 between 2 a.m. and 5:35 a.m. Sunday.

Officer Robert Stables, while on routine patrol found the rear door had been pryed open. Policemen searched the area and found Frank Gamba, the brother-in-law of the owner, sleeping upstairs. Gamba said he had not heard any noise until awakening from the policemen's footsteps as they walked up to him.

Owner Val Connolly, 153 Mirada drive, said $516.39 was gone from the register, $686 missing from a hiding place, and a small file box containing customers charge bills was gone.

Citizen's Arrest Made For Alleged Drunk Driving

Roger L. Dempsey, 239 Willits street, made a citizen's arrest of Thomas James Laramie, 54, 57 West Cavour street, for alleged drunken driving last Tuesday at 6 p.m.

Dempsey said Laramie was driving "very erratic" while travelling South on San Jose avenue and Mission streets. "He went over the double white line a number of times, hit an island at Knowles avenue causing his left front tire to blow out, and continued on to strike street barricades at Vista Grande avenue," Dempsey stated.

"After surveying the damage, Laramie got back into the vehicle and started his motor and then I took the keys away from him," Dempsey continued.

Officer Matthew Murray said that Laramie appeared to be intoxicated. Laramie was arrested on a drunk driving charge and released on $525 bail after a sobriety test was taken at Junipero Serra Hospital.

Tot Eats Matches

Johnny A. Sheridan, 19 months old, 88 Rockford avenue, was transported to Junipero Serra Hospital last Sunday at 9:30 a.m. where a lavage was performed.

Officer Charles Munday said the tot had reportedly eaten some matches. The lavage disclosed that the boy had swallowed four paper matches.

Polaroid Camera Stolen From Auto

J. Paul Green, 368 Northgate avenue, told Officer Harold Tunnell that a polaroid camera, valued at $73, had been taken from his unlocked station wagon between 10 p.m. Friday and 8 a.m. Saturday. The vehicle was parked in the driveway at his home.

SCHOOL CHIEFS 'UP TO DATE' ON PANORAMA

Both Daly City school districts have discussed sites and plans in the Panorama subdivision tract with officials of Standard Building Company.

Superintendent Richard Foster of Jefferson Elementary District apprised the developers of the need for one 10-acre elementary site contiguous to the planned 700-homes subdivision. Foster and his staff are negotiating with Crocker Estate for a level site at the southern boundary of the proposed new Daly City tract. A site within the 100-acre subdivision was ruled out because of the sloping terrain.

Superintendent Edward Morgan of Jefferson High School District has received Standard Company's master plan on Panorama. He explained that a portion of the subdivision on the San Mateo County side of the line is a part of Bayshore Elementary School District. Annexation of Panorama to Daly City will result in a request that the area become a part of Jefferson Elementary District. Regardless of which elementary district holds jurisdiction, the subdivision will be a part of Jefferson High School District.

Approximately 235 high school students are expected from the Panorama tract when the development is completed. The homes will be on 33-foot lots.

South Hill boulevard will be the tract's main street. It has been designed with the cooperation of Crocker Estate engineers and is built to a grade that climbs to 10 percent. If additional Crocker lands are developed nearby, South Hill boulevard, has been planned so that it can be extended to the center of the vast Crocker property.

The subdivision will contain no commercial development, Morgan said he was told, but there is a possibility that the present drive-in theater property off Daly City's Edgemar street near Mar Vista drive might be converted into a commercial area by the Crocker Estate or other developers who buy Crocker property.

The high school board's latest Stanford survey on school site needs included the projection that a site will be needed in the Crocker hills east of Daly City, and that this high school, based on anticipated Crocker development, eventually would have to be the largest in the district, with an expected enrollment of 3000 students.

State Purchases 8800 Pheasants

At its meeting in Los Angeles last month the California Fish and Game Commission adopted a new pheasant policy which incorporated the closing of two State game farms—Imperial, near Brawley, and Valley Center, near San Diego.

The Commission then instructed the Department to purchase about 8800 birds from private breeders, on a trial basis, to replace the output of the two game farms.

Bids on the pheasants will be called for in September. The private breeders must raise the birds to maturity and deliver them to the points of release in Southern California.

The two State game farms will close as of the end of the pheasant season in Southern California, December 11.

The new overall pheasant policy also envisions the end of put-and-take pheasant planting in Northern California by the end of 1963, with all game farms in Northern California closed except Yountville, which will then continue to rear 25,000 pheasant chicks a year. These chicks will be offered to conservationists, dog trainer groups and non-profit hunting clubs, which will raise the pheasants to maturity at their own expense. Yountville will also continue to be used for raising other exotic birds for experimental plantings in game deficient areas of the State.

Nine Lounge Chairs Stolen From W'lake

Westlake Special Officer Henry Gross reported that seven chairs and two lounge chairs, valued at $125, were stolen from the apartment house swimming pool at 2 Coronado drive sometime between 5 p.m. Sunday and 8 a.m. Monday of last week.

Gross said he checked with tenants to see if any of them had brought the chairs into their apartments to keep them from the inclement weather but none had any knowledge of what happened to them. Loss was listed to the builder, Henry Doelger Inc., 333 Park Plaza drive.

Boy Wrenches Neck

Francis A. Sattile, 12, 394 3rd avenue, Colma, was transported to Junipero Serra Hospital by Officer Charles Manning of the Broadmoor police force when he wrenched his neck last Friday at 5 p.m.

Sattile had been wrestling with Bruce Loughner, 13, 174 Crocker avenue, Mario Dupont, 286 3rd avenue, reported the mishap to Daly City policeman Tom Culley.

George Glass Takes Gavel As Lions' Leader

Daly City-Colma Lions Club's annual installation-dinner dance brought an attendance of 57 members and their wives.

George Glass of Spotlite Market took the gavel as new president, succeeding Postmaster Vincent Murphy. Other new officers: John Putkey, first vice president; Sam Felser, second vice president; Ted Weibel, third vice president and secretary; Joe Rohl, recording secretary; Howard Voldmen, tail twister, and Julius Castelan, lion tamer.

Lion Rudy DeLeon's students presented an hour-long musical program to highlight the festivities.

Former high school superintendent Stan Hannah and his wife, Bernice, danced a solo waltz in observance of their 36th wedding anniversary.

The Lions' big project at present is selling new 50-star American flags to residents and merchants. Ray Charette, PL 5-3100, is in charge of this drive.

Reverend King Pastor Of New Church In SSF

The Reverend George W. King, for three years part time executive secretary of the Peninsula Council of Churches, has presented his resignation to assume full time duties as pastor of the Highlands Baptist Church in South San Francisco, a new project he has organized. The church has acquired a building site on Junipero Serra Blvd. and will be constructing the initial unit of the church building in the near future.

Mrs. Leland Mahood of San Mateo has been named by the president, the Rev. R. F. Winkelman of Millbrae, as the convenor of a special committee to seek a successor to Mr. King. The Council is currently engaged in study toward the possible organization of a Protestant Social Welfare Department to coordinate the various social service activities engaged in by the Council.

Police Recover Car, Barbecue Pits As DC Lad Arrested

Daly City police recovered five portable barbecue pits and a stolen auto when San Francisco police apprehended Ted W. Saumer, 18, 634 San Diego avenue, as a possible suspect in a hit and run case which occurred last Sunday at 12:15 a.m.

Stamped on the five portable barbecue pits was "King Regal Station, 2401 Junipero Serra boulevard, Daly City." Donald Goodner, 30, 821 Baker street, San Francisco, an attendant, said the barbecue pits were possibly those missing from the station." They are valued at $17.95 each.

The auto, which Saumer was driving, was registered to Vera Viola, 76 West Market street. She told Officer Robert Stables that her vehicle had been stolen earlier.

Two Dresses Worth $500 Taken From Unlocked Vehicle

Police received a letter from Dorothy Utterback, 22 Garden Lane, Broadmoor Village, last Wednesday stating that she had two handknit dresses worth $500 stolen from her auto on June 1.

The woman said the dresses were taken from her unlocked car while it was parked. Six other dresses were lying in the back of the auto, she said, but were not taken. Officer David Johnstone handled the investigation.

Use your head as well as your feet when you're walking near traffic, advises the National Automobile Club.

Bottler Charged As 'Battler' Surrenders Self

Robert Selhorn, 39, 6131 Mission street, a bottler, surrendered himself to police last Thursday on a warrant charging him with creating a disturbance. He was released on $157 bail.

Selhorn told Officer Philip LaBruzzo the warrant came after a year long feud with a neighbor, Fred B. Fryman, 45, who lives in San Francisco but owns the Daly City Amateur Supply, a radio store at 6129 Mission street. Fryman's store is downstairs from Selhorn's residence.

According to Selhorn, Fryman let a number of "hams" send radio messages from his store and Fryman also sent some early in the morning. Selhorn said he asked Fryman to be a bit more quiet and when Fryman swore at him, he punched him in the nose.

Selhorn claimed Fryman's call letters came over the audio of his television set and he experienced interference on the TV set and telephone.

District Trustees Will Meet This Monday and July 18

Regular meetings of the Jefferson Elementary High School Districts will be held n July 11 and 18.

The Jefferson Union High School District board of trustees will meet on Monday at 7:30 p.m. at 375 South Mayfair avenue.

The Jefferson Elementary School District trustees will convene at 8 p.m. on July 18 at 48 Park Plaza drive.

DUE PROCESS

The Fifth Amendment states: ". . . nor shall any person be deprived of life, liberty or property, without due process of law."

Through the "due process" clauses, the Fifth Amendment limits the Federal power, and the Fourteenth limits each State's powers to act arbitrarily.

In our courts, "due process of law" limits the State's power to take life, liberty, or property. It guarantees your access to an impartial court which judges only after a fair trial. Due process assures that laws will not be unreasonable, arbitrary, or capricious nor apply to you arbitrarily. It aims to keep the government from enacting or applying laws in a way that offends our sense of fair play.

Much of our law sets out your procedural rights, such as rules of evidence to get you a fair trial. It also gives you the right to a jury trial, to subpoena unwilling witnesses to testify on your behalf, to have a lawyer represent you if you want one, and to have the court's judgment carried out, if need be, by the sheriff or even the armed forces.

Procedural law sets out how you may appeal your case to a higher court when you think you have been denied a fair hearing.

Some of the most dramatic parts of law—the headline makers—are procedural. The many writs of a court—writs of habeas corpus, or mandamus or attachment, etc.—are the orders of a court to enforce your rights. They are parts of the procedural law, and go back to the very taproots of our liberties.

Americans have learned to look with suspicion on proposals to short circuit the guarantees of fair play in our courts under the guise of speed and expediency.

Curiosity is only vanity. Most frequently we wish to know but to talk. Otherwise we would not take a sea voyage in order never to talk of it, and for the sole pleasure of seeing, without hope of ever communicating it.

I want to travel in Europe. And yet I know that I am only going to a graveyard—but it's a most precious graveyard. Precious are the dead that lie there; every stone over them speaks of such burning life in the past, of such passionate faith in their work, their truth, their struggle and their science, that I know I shall fall on the ground and kiss those stones and weep over them—though I'm convinced in my heart that it's long been nothing but a graveyard.

Salaries Make Up Largest Share Of JESD Budget Rise

Superintendent Richard Foster said that more than three quarters of the Jefferson Elementary School District's anticipated rise in the budget over this year's is reflected in salaries.

Foster made the disclosure following announcement that the trustees had approved the preliminary budget and would hold a public hearing on August 1 at 8 p.m. at 48 Park Plaza drive.

This year's total budget was $3,033,427 while next year's is figured to be $3,471,611. The difference is $438,184. Of the $438,184, approximately $370,000 is due to hiring of personnel and increases in salaries.

Salaries for teachers and administrators account for $275,681 of the increase. Other increases are custodial salaries of $71,315; maintenance personnel wages of $7794; and school clerks' salaries of $13,000.

DALY CITY's fast diminishing old landmarks were one less in number last week when Cleveland Company wrecking crews battered down old General Pershing Elementary School on Hanover street. The 34-year-old structure was demolished and is replaced by a new school, on the same site, that will open this September.

$658,008 In SF Taxes To Mateo County

The city and county of San Francisco paid property taxes totaling $658,008.36 to San Mateo County during the fiscal year 1959-60, an increase of $39,854.50 over the preceding year, according to a report released in San Francisco today by City Controller Harry D. Ross.

San Francisco pays taxes on its airport; the Crystal Springs lakes, watersheds and aqueduct rights-of-way; Hassler Health Farm, Log Cabin Ranch, Prison Farm and Spark Park golf course at Pacifica.

San Mateo County cities to which San Francisco paid $11,213.75 taxes on city-owned properties within their boundaries were:

Burlingame, $6.072.36; Daly City, $216.96; Hillsborough, $867.22; Redwood City, $1,392.34; San Carlos, $321.42; San Mateo, $2,343.45.

Alameda County was second on the list, receiving a payment of $367,450.02, an increase of $13,513.10 over the previous year. The smallest tax bill submitted to San Francisco was from Mariposa County, $2.88.

TWO PACIFICA LADS RESCUED FROM CLIFF

Officer John Coleman spotted two juveniles stranded on the cliff below Westlake Terrace and South of Mussell Rock last Saturday at 3:15 p.m. and notified the fire department.

The two boys, half way down a 400 foot cliff with the tide coming in against it, were rescued as fireman Bob Malcolm was lowered on a rope and grabbed the boys to bring them to the top. Battalion Fire Chief Frank Specht was in charge of the operation.

The youngsters were Mike McGrew, 14, 1425 Palmello drive, Sharp Park, and John Freel, 15, 266 Clifton avenue, Edgemar, both of Pacifica.

Colmeman credited Ron Cox, 4652½ Eighteenth street and Richard Pederson, 3422 Twentieth street, both of San Francisco, for their part in the rescue.

BONNIE JENSEN

Daly City's Queen As Versatile As A Gal 17 Can Be

Who ever heard of a beauty contest winner walking off the judging platform and promptly heading for the hills to herd cattle?

Whether it's done or not, Bonnie Jensen, 17, Miss Daly City, did it.

She will compete with winners of 10 other Peninsula cities for the title of San Mateo County "Dream Girl" to reign over the 26th annual Fair and Floral Fieta, August 5-13.

"The peace and quiet after the contest was so refreshing," she said, "even though I'd never milked a cow before."

The pastoral life is not this statuesque blonde's real love, of course. Bonnie is going to be a commercial artist.

"Actually, oils are my favorite," she confessed. "But I can't afford to be a starving artist. So I'll have to be commercial during the day, and do my 'starving' on my own time."

Bonnie plans to enter the College of Arts and Crafts in Oakland after she finishes her senior year at Westmoor High School in Daly City.

The school requires that prospective students submit samples of their work. But Bonnie won't be able to show them her best painting.

"It was a madonna, and I loved it," she said, "so I gave it to a friend's grandmother for Mother's Day."

This blue-eyed Giants baseball fan started practicing her artistic skills in her basement with an improvised easle she hung from the ceiling and tried to anchor to the floor.

"My father made me get rid of it though," she laughed. "He kept tripping over it."

Bonnie's job as secretary to a Daly City insurance broker will keep her from attending the County Fairs this summer with her father and mother, who work as pari mutual clerk and cashier on the fair circuit during the summer.

"I love the fairs," she said, "but I'm too young to work for them."

And she likes sports too.

"The only thing is," Bonnie said, "it's kind of embarrassing when my date asks me what I'd like to do and I suggest a game of basketball."

BLOND, blue-eyed Bonnie Jensen, 17, Miss Daly City, is no ordinary beauty contest winner. She will compete with 11 other girls for the title of "Dream Girl" of the 26th annual San Mateo County Fair and Floral Fiesta, August 5-13. But Bonnie is also a talented young artist, and plans to make a career of it, even though she looks great on either side of the easel.

IRATE WOMAN STABS HUBBY WITH FORK

Police arrested Hallie Hunsperger, 45, 134 Santa Cruz avenue, last Sunday at 2:50 a.m. after they found her husband had been stabbed twice with a fork and struck over the head with a frying pan. She was released the following day as her husband refused to sign a complaint.

Officers Al Nicolini, Robert Stables and Lieutenant Bruno Conci found Oscar Hunsperger, 47, sitting on the curb in front of his home. He was bleeding from two stab wounds which were approximately one inch apart on the right side of his chest. He also had a laceration on the left side of his scalp.

He told police that his brother Charles was the responsible party. However, the officers checked at his residence and found his daughter Carol, 16, in a highly hysterical state. She told them her mother had stabbed her father twice with a fork and then hit him over the head with a frying pan.

Nicolini noted that Mrs. Hunsperged allegedly had been drinking. Her version was that she had been quarreling with her husband and he struck her. She said she then told him to leave her and went outside. She denied hitting or stabbing him. Police arrested her on assault with a deadly weapon charges but released her when her husband refused to sign a complaint.

Younger Postpones Speaking Schedule

Congressman J. Arthur Younger today announced that as a result of Congress being called back into session on August 8 that he will be forced to change his home speaking schedule to conform to the new adjournment date, which will probably be about September 10.

Younger had originally planned to begin his home speaking schedule on August 1.

His home secretary, George A. McQueen, announced that he would confer with all organizations scheduled previous to September 10 to arrange for changes in dates.

Serra Highlands Improvement Assn. Cites Dance Success

Dear Editor:

On behalf of Serra Highlands Improvement Association of South San Francisco, I wish to take this opportunity to express our most sincere appreciation for your co-operation in publicizing our recent "Let's Get Acquainted" dance. The advance publicity which your paper so graciously gave the event greatly aided in making the event successful.

We had the opportunity to get acquainted with many of our neighbors from Daly City, and we are sure many of them learned of the dance from your publications.

It is a pleasure to be able to report that the dance made a large profit for the organization, and these funds will enable us to continue with our plans for other civic and social projects during the coming year.

Again, our thanks for your help in making the evening both a social and a financial success.

Cites Sales Tax, Gas Tax Monies As Key Factors

Dear Editor:

I'd like to add a few remarks about taxes to the discussion on Callan Park. So far all that we have heard about are assessed valuations of the land compared to Daly City, and nobody can agree with anybody else on what these are. But I think that there are other sources of tax revenue that ought to be considered, too.

The Shopping Center that goes into Callan Park will add to our gross sales taxes. Nobody knows how much it will add, but a Shopping Center that is supposed to have about 1,000,000 square feet of retail floor space will add a lot.

Another tax that I figure ought to be clear profit to the city for a while is the gas tax. I figure that since Callan is putting in all of the streets in his tract and since he has a legal agreement with the city and has posted a bond to cover the agreement, that we should have no major expenses for five or ten years or more. So the gas tax produced by this new population in Callan Park should benefit the present city until the time comes when those people will need these services.

I don't know how important these taxes are, but when we talk about taxes, I think that we ought to talk about them all.

Yours very truly,
Sam Grado

'All Better Off By City's Growth,' Westlaker Explains

Dear Mr. Bradshaw:

I think that we all realize that Daly City is going to continue to expand. We have been growing steadily since 1948, and we are all better off for it.

A lot of people say that we shouldn't annex Callan Park all at once because it is too big. Well, I think that that is all-wet thinking. If we annex Callan Park piece by piece, maybe we'll get some, South San Francisco will get some, Pacifica will get some, San Bruno will get a little, and everyone else will, too. And none of us will have very much.

And for all we know, if we take it a little at a time, we might end up with all the residential area and maybe someone else will get a 50 million dollar shopping center, then our taxes will really go up while somebody else gets all the gravy. As it is now it is pretty balanced and we ought to come out ahead overall because it is creating a third big commercial district in Daly City. If we don't take that shopping center then somebody else will and then it well really hurt, because all of those tax dollars will support somebody else's low value lands.

Yours truly,
McRobert Stewart

READER TAKES EXCEPTION TO PREVIOUS LETTER

Dear Mr. Bradshaw:

After I read Mrs. Garrison's letter in a recent edition I did some investigating into what she had said.

She said that it was "appalling" that the public hearing on the annexation was closed several hours after it had opened and the pleas of the schools, county, civic leaders, etc., were "ignored and completely nullified."

Well, I'd like to ask her if she knows what the purpose of that meeting was? It was to hear protests from landowners in the annexed area. The schools and county weren't ignored—it's just that by law it wasn't the proper time for them to present their cases. All that the Council had were maps of the boundaries. The schools couldn't plan school sites because the meeting wasn't allowed by law to determine land usage. It was the same story for reservoir sites and parks and roads and everything else. The Callans had been discussing these issues with government officials since November and had tentative land apportions at that time. Right after the hearing the city and owners and contractors all conferred in public hearings on all of these matters. You will notice that none of these public bodies complained after they found out that they would have their say in their proper hearings and study sessions.

Mrs. Garrison also said that as soon as the city annexed the land that it was obligatory to "provide public works, engineering services, water, schools, recreation, etcetera." This is not so. A part of the annexation is an agreement with the city that legally requires the developers to provide public works, engineering, and school and recreation areas. And the city is anxious to provide water service because it makes a profit on it and will make more if it can get new customers.

The city doesn't have to worry about schools because the Callans have to provide sites and the state provides about 80 per cent of the funds for new school construction.

She also said that the sewage for the area would be "costly beyond any tax revenue that the city would get from the homes in Callan Park." That is her biggest mistake of all because the Callans are bound by their contract to the city to provide mains and all connections, and the sanitation district sets up special tax districts when a new area adds to the total expenses. It charges the people in that special sub-district a second tax to cover the extra expenses so that, through the construction of the tax structure it is impossible to make anyone now in Daly City pay for anything in any new annexation.

I'd like to assure Mrs. Garrison that her fears for the city's dealings with contractors are unfounded in the case of Callan Park. The city made a good bargain with the Callans and we are protected by a signed agreement.

Sincerely,
Ray Logan

'Taxpayers Need More Facts On Big Annexation'

Dear Editor:

I doubt very much if this will be printed, as I note all the letters in the Mail Bag regarding the Callan Park are in favor of annexation, however, here goes!

In the June 29 issue of the Westlake Times, Mrs. Mayre Albert states that Daly City would enjoy $69,000.00 net from taxes as a result of the annexation. I quote from the May 11 issue of the Westlake Times: "City Manager Edward Frank terms it "too early to approximate Daly City's next fiscal tax rate and to determine the extent of services needed in the first stages of the Callan Park annexation'." How then can Mrs. Albert know the amount of additional revenue? I tried to phone Mrs. Albert to inquire, but found that there is no phone listed to any Albert at that address. Could it be that Mrs. Albert is fictitious? And what of the other contributors? And who is writing these letters in favor of the annexation?

In the May 11 issue, a supposedly Mr. Irwin Smith claims that the annexation (to Daly City) would result in thousands of jobs. This sound reasonable, but wouldn't it also apply regardless of where Callan Park is located?

In order to intelligently determine if the annexation would be advantageous to the taxpayers we should be informed of the following: What services will be required, at what cost? What additional city buildings must be constructed, at what cost? How many schools will be required, at what cost? How many teachers, at what cost? These figures to be balanced against the revenue to the city from the annexation.

In the May 11 issue of the Westlake Times, the following: "The council later this month will begin study sessions on the fiscal '60-'61 budget, and all agree that a considerable jump in the property tax rate will be necessary, due to increased population and the need for more services and personnel to accommodate this growth."

What then will the increased population of the proposed Callan Park annexation do to the taxes?

Very truly yours,
Leland Miller

VOLUNTEER IN PETITION DRIVE WAS NOT PAID

Dear Editor:

In your edition of June 29, 1960, in your "Mailbag" column, appears a letter stating that "all solicitors on the petition to have the Callan Park annexation submitted to an election of Daly City voters were paid."

If this is so, I would like to know where to go to receive my pay!

As a volunteer I received "no" pay and I consider this a slur.

When I spoke to people about signing the petition I stated that I didn't know if the annexation was a good idea or not, but that I thought it undemocratic the way the city council pushed the annexation through and that the only democratic way was by an election.

So far all I see in your paper are letters in favor of the city council's action. Don't you believe in the democratic way?

Sincerely,
Goldine Jacobs

Housewife Urges Builders To Weigh School Needs Here

Dear Mr. Bradshaw,

The big important question regarding the Callan annexation, in our family, is not a matter of higher or lower taxes, but what's to become of our four children school wise, and we are certainly not alone in this concern. It goes without saying that if this huge project becomes part of Daly City the Jefferson Elementary School District will, after much fussing, inherit its thousands of children, and I can't help but wonder just where that will leave mine.

If anyone has paid a price for this building boom it has been the children of this "well planned community." We, as parents, provide security at home for them but no security at all regarding their schooling. The years tick off kindergarden today, high school tomorrow (a double session high school this fall.)

I will be very happy to cast my vote in favor of annexation and a greater Daly City if the interesteed parties can assure me that I would be chipping away at my children's future. Come to think of it, in six years as a taxpayer, this is the first time I've ever been asked.

I would like to see the school facts presented in this newspaper by the subdividers, and the Jefferson Elementary School District. Complete cooperation and understanding on the part of a big builder with the school district would indeed be a first for all the children concerned, and lest we forget that includes all our good friends in Colma who will have no say in this election. This will be the deciding factor in how we will cast our ballots and I'm sure a lot of other people feel the same way.

Sincerely,
Doris Plant

P.S. Food for thought: "The Hatfields and McCoys were fued'n mountain boys"—or so the songs says, but they only managed to hurt each other. A classic example of a modern day temper tantrum is the outrageous delay of the M. Pauline Brown School in which hundreds of children were left waiting. If this is a sample of things to come, I'll take vanilla.

'Many Annexations Before—So Why Balk This Time?'

Dear Mr. Bradshaw:

I'd like to say that I don't believe people who say that they're against Callan Park because it will increase our taxes. We've had lots of big annexations before that nobody has complained about, so why are we suddenly balking at this one?

Everybody says that it's all of these homes that adds so many people and so little assessed value and increases our taxes. If I'm not mistaken, St. Francis Heights has more homes than Callan Park, and it has no commercial areas to increase assessed value. But since Callan Park has a $37 million shopping center to boost the assessed valuation per house, I want to know why these people who thought that St. Francis Heights was okay are all against Callan Park?

I think that with all of the commercial areas in Callan Park that it's as good or better for Daly City than Westlake, and I'm sure that Callan Park is a better tax annexation than either St. Francis Heights, or Westlake Highlands or even the Panorama annexation that the city is approving now.

Respectfully,
Frank W. Shreve

AROUND TOWN

WHO WAS embarrassed the most—Mayor Frank Pacelli of Daly City or the Pacifica cop who gave him a ticket a couple of weeks ago?

Someone stole the 1960 sticker off Pacelli's rear license plate and the police officer was quick to spot the discrepancy.

Come to think of it, those license stickers are a wee too small at that!

RUTH HENTHORN, Daly City recreation supervisor (from the green state of Oregon) and veteran Daly City police sergeant Jerry Galindo must have decided that two pay checks are better than one these days of high taxes and rising costs.

They exchanged vows recently in Reno.

This is the first municipal alliance we've had in Daly City for quite some time.

* * *

A GUY from Palo Alto wrote the editor of the Chronicle this week and suggested that San Francisco annex Daly City and South San Francisco to make up for its population loss to the suburbs.

Preliminarily, we'd like to know why a Palo Alto resident is concerned about San Francisco, and secondarily, if he harbors the illusion that any part of San Mateo County will swallow the oft-proposed idea of joining the Big Burg.

The reasons San Francisco officials want portions of San Mateo County are obvious. Practically speaking, however, these rumored mergers have about as much chance of fulfillment as Mickey Cohen has for president.

* * *

PHIL BROWN, assistant to Daly City's manager, has departed the ranks of apartment dwellers for a new home in Westlake Unit 11.

He and the missus are expecting their second infant momentarily.

City Manager Edward Frank still hasn't moved his family and belongings from Petaluma, but he'll probably do so before summer is out.

* * *

COUNCILMAN Ed Dennis and wife Hilda celebrated their 26th wedding anniversary last week. Ed's son is headed for France on Army duty. The councilman's daughter attends San Francisco State.

* * *

Localites who know choice Italian food won't soon forget Gus Sebastiani, now retired after so many years of popularity as boss of San Pedro Lunch. Gus is sort of taking it easy now after a recent stroke. Take it from him, the restaurant business is hectic.

* * *

DESPITE proposals by the State Personnel Board and the city personnel board, Daly City councilmen aren't in favor of giving the police and fire chiefs the same pay—a situation (statistics show) that exists in most Bay Area communities.

The council adheres to the thinking that the responsibilities and risks of the two jobs cannot be compared.

Many municipal authorities feel policemen potentially face more hazardous duty. There are many pros and cons on this point, however.

At any rate, if Fire Chief Elmer Kennedy's new salary remains below that of Police Chief Roland Petrocchi, this will be the only disparity in the fire and police ranks.

Firemen and patrolmen here are salaried at the same rate as are supervisory personnel in each department up the ladder to chief.

* * *

THE council's capital outlay proposals in the new fiscal budget includes $20,000 toward the development of Westmoor Park. This contribution will bring the city up to par with the high school district in the shared project. Last fiscal year the high school district withheld its annual contribution because the city didn't have the funds to match the school's portion.

Westmoor Park is master-planned for a clubhouse, tennis and handball courts, a softball area, and lots of lawn for adults and tots' use alike. It certainly will be a welcome addition when fully completed.

* * *

MIGHT be pointed out that Daly City's thrifty joint-use program with both school districts is saving taxpayers considerable monies that ordinarily would have to be spent for additional city park sites and their upkeep. The new schools here have plenty of playground space, therefore can be utilized year-around to serve the entire community. This eliminates the city's expenditure of money for new park sites, equipment and maintenance.

By sharing the load, both the schools and city erase the costs of duplication.

* * *

MARY'S Help Hospital will be a welcome addition to Daly City and the north county at large.

Meanwhile, the tri-city committee working for the tax-supported north county hospital district will continue full speed to establish that entity.

The State Division of Highways has plans to relocate—not permanently remove—standby Junipero Serra Hospital to make way for the proposed and "nine tenths adopted" freeway route.

All in all, things are looking up locally as far as total hospital facilities are concerned.

* * *

BUILDING permits during fiscal '59-'60 brought Daly City $59,000 in revenue. Projections for the next twelve months, from the same source, are $36,000, so logic dictates that the extraordinarily heavy new construction here will taper off considerably.

Plumbing permits last year channeled $16,600 into the city's treasury, while electrical permit issuances brought in $20,000. Streets and curbs permits mustered only $500 since last July.

Finance Chief Joe Arch expects a total of $13,000 from plumbing permits, $11,000 from electrical, and roughly $500 from streets and gutters by next July 1.

Every little bit of revenue counts and affects the yearly tax rate. About this time of year, all city finance chiefs are seeing double after figuring and re-checking estimates for the new fiscal season.

Thank heaven for machines and tranquilizers!

* * *

DALY CITY'S new assessed valuation will be close to $47 million—an increase of almost 3½ million dollars.

South San Francisco, by comparison, with about 38,000 residents to Daly City's 43,500, has a newly recorded assessed valuation of $77,000,000, a jump of $4,772,000 over last time.

Even with the $77 million figure, South San Francisco councilmen are struggling to hold the line on their $1.56 tax rate. This levy there hasn't been changed—up or down—since 1955.

AT THE bottom of the barrel this week is the word from Redwood City that supervisors expect to reduce the county tax rate by three or four cents!

Good tidings in an election year!

'Soaring Sixties' Is Festival Theme In November At OLPH

"The Soaring Sixties" is the jet-age inspired theme of the "Parish Festival" being planned at Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church for sometime in November. This will be held in the parish hall on Wellington avenue and will be a three-day affair.

At a recent meeting of the various parish organizations, it was decided to revive the parish festivals which were such fun affairs and among the memorable events in Daly City.

The kick-off planning meeting was held by representatives of the Mothers' Club, Men's Club, the Holy Name Society and St. Vincetn de Paul Society.

A few chairmanships were available and were accepted by the following parishioners: Father Matthew Sullivan, general chairman; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Mignault, Mrs. Milan Stanley, Mrs. William Gonzales, Guy Garguilo, Louis Thiebaut, Mrs. Achille Liberti, Earl Hethcoat and Constantine Ragone.

Many other parishioners, to be selected at a future date, will be heading committees and taking care of amusement booths. A dinner will be a feature of the three-day festival. Interested parishioners are urged to attend the Monday night meetings in the parish hall. Next meeting will be on July 12.

As part of the pre-festival planning and to take care of necessary expenses, a family game night will be held every Tuesday night until the festival in the school hall and the public is extended a most cordial invitation to attend. The games will start at 8:30 and coffee will be served. Constantine Ragone, members of the Men's Club and the Mothers' Club will have charge of these pre-festival games.

Diana Joann Donati Becomes Bride Of Nicholas J. Piombo

St. Peters and Pauls Church was the setting on Saturday, June 25, for the wedding of Miss Diana Joann Donati and Nicholas "Nick" John Piombo. A large gathering of friends and relatives attended the 11 a.m. nuptial Mass, at which Father Divine officiated.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore an Alencon French Lace gown made on Princess lines with fitted bodice and sweeping train. Her finger tip veil fell from a crown of wax orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of white orchids and lilies of the valley. Maid of honor was Miss Nadine Baker and the bridesmaids were the Misses Carol Ann Nulk, Maria Nieri, Maria Bocci and Joanne Guidi. Flower girls were Laura Pacini and Denise Donati. They were dressed alike in Nile green gowns of taffeta and chiffon organza and carried sprays of Roman glory roses. The flower girls carried natural straw baskets with Garnett roses. Master David Pacini was ring bearer.

George Piombo attended his brother as best man and the ushers were Lawrence Zunino, Tony Piombo and Louis Donati Jr. (the bride's brother). A reception followed at the California Golf Club.

The bride, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Frank Donati of Daly City, attended Mercy High School in Burlingame and San Francisco College for Women. Her brother is Louis Donati Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Piombo of Oakland are the groom's parents. He has one brother, George. The young couple will reside in San Francisco where the groom is in business.

Trustees Authorize Colma, Franklin Painting, New Car

Jefferson Elementary School District trustees Thursday night authorized the administration to advertise for bids for the painting of Ben Franklin and Colma Schols and to purchase a new station wagon for the transportation of blind pupils.

Estimated cost for the painting of Ben Franklin and Colma Schools is $6000.

SSF Women Elect Mrs. Nash New Club President

Amid the stately surroundings of the California Golf and Country Club, Mrs. Sherman Nash, along with her staff of officers, was recently installed as president of the South San Francisco Woman's Club.

The installation was preceded by cocktails and then by a delicious luncheon. Mrs. Edward D. Murphy, parliamentarian of the Golden Gate District of California Federation of Women's Clubs, graciously agreed to install this year's slate of officers, repeating the ceremony that she had conducted for last year's officers.

She chose as theme for this year "Hitch Your Wagon to a Star" and had a personal message for each officer. The presidential gavel was handed from outgoing president Mrs. William Cottenham to Mrs. Nash by Mrs. E. P. Kauffmann, a former past president and active member for many years.

Serving with Mrs. Nash is Mrs. Robert Whitehead first vice president; Mrs. Eddie Hoskinson second vice president; Mrs. Elwood Freeman recording secretary; Mrs. Harry Leitner corresponding secretary; Mrs. Fred Sneed treasurer; Mrs. Charles Milly financial secretary; and Mrs. Emily Sheafe parliamentarian.

Speaker for the day, introduced by Mrs. Cottenham, was Mrs. Alfred Crichton Jr, incoming second vice president of Golden Gate District of California Federation of Women's Clubs. She discussed the variety of projects that can be chosen as special endeavors to fit with the interest and needs of Federated Clubs.

Gifts, as tokens of appreciation for service during an eventful year, were presented to Mrs. Cottenham, Miss Lauretta Hussar, and the Mesdames Richard Jordan, Harry Leitner, Sherman Nash, and Robert Owen.

Trustees Accept One Gift, Await Rule On Second

Jefferson Elementary District trustees Thursday night approved acceptance of one gift but said they would wait for a ruling from the district attorney on a second gift.

The board accepted $69.25 from the Associated Student Body of Ben Franklin School for purchase of a kickwheel and the lumber needed to construct two frames. A $1000 grant from the estate of Margaret Pauline Brown, which was stipulated to be used as a scholarship, was held up.

The board wished to find if it is lawful and feasible to award a $1000 scholarship to a sixth grader and also if the money could be used for another purpose.

Trustees also approved $840 for the additional work at Ben Franklin School for an catch basin.

Kobi Peak, in North Tanganyika Territory, East Africa, is the highest point on the African continent, 19,565 feet.

TWENTY-TWO of the largest pre-cast concrete vaults ever made are now in place atop the walls of the new industrial exhibits building at the San Mateo County fairgrounds. The 40-ton, 100-foot-long barrel vaults now form the roof of the structure. The next step, the paving and grading of the area around the building, is already under way. Landscaping, including the installation of a sprinkler system, will begin next week and be completed in plenty of time for the fair's nine-day run, August 5-13. The contractor is W. A. Moroney Construction.

Amendments To 'Assigned Risk' Insurance Plan Cut Premiums

If your automobile insurance is handled through the Assigned Risk Plan — and only about 3% of all California insured motorists fall in this category —then some amendments to the plan, which become effective July 1, 1960, may work to your advantage.

Through a ruling by the California State Department of Insurance, arbitrary and excessive surcharges are being replaced by more realistic and uniform method of determining automobile insurance premiums for risks under the plan.

The maximum initial surcharge allowable for private passenger cars will be calculated on a dollar and cents basis, which is approximately 15% of the rates used by most companies. This will be administered on an "across-the-board" basis on all assigned risks. Some variations in rates will continue, however, depending upon territory and classification.

A motorist classificed as a "negligent operator" under the Assigned Risk Plan is subject to an additional surcharge of $85 for his insurance. Those whose records are not quite as serious, yet worse than the average of the majority of the risks in the plan, may be charged $45 in addition to the initial surcharge. It is estimated that the $85 extra charge will apply to less than 10% of all risks and the $45 charge to less than 15%.

Contrary to popular belief, the Assigned Risk Plan is not a "state insurance" system. It was originally adopted in California some 18 years ago, on a voluntary basis, by casualty insurance compainies in order to "provide automobile bodily injury and property damage liability insurance to specified risks unable to secure such coverage through normal channels." Now a statutory requirement, it is administered by a manager and a governing committee and is subject to the same rules and regulations by the Department of Insurance as affect all insurance companies operating in the state.

While created as a burden, on the assumption that assigned risks would constitute a relatively trivial proportion of their automobile business, the companies subscribing to the plan have consistently lost millions of dollars each year in its operation.

Efforts by the insurance companies to depopulate the plan, by voluntarily writing insurance on an increasing number of "border line" risks, can be materially aided through greater attention to safe conduct on the part of the motorist himself.

Henry O'Toole Appointed To Knights' Post

Henry J. O'Toole, 210 Hazelwood Drive, So. San Francisco, has been appointed vice-chairman of the Catholic Action Committee, Knight's of Columbus for the Archdiocese of San Francisco by State Deputy Arthur J. Melka of Oakland.

Tardelli Heads 'Yes' Committee On Callan Issue

Approximately 20 Daly City citizens met recently to organize the executive committee of the "Yes on Callan Park Campaign Committee."

Frank Tardelli, 26 East Moltke street, a plumber and volunteer fireman, was named general chairman by the group. He will be assisted by subchairmen for Westlake, St. Francis Heights and "Top of the Hill" districts.

Tardelli said that the executive committee will spearhead the organization of a citywide committee of about 500 citizens and businessmen from all parts of the city.

The executive committee has opened campaign headquarters at 6268 Mission street.

Tardelli said that "Yes on Callan Park Committee" was formed as a movement to acquaint citizens of Daly City with the facts of the Callan Park annexation. He said that Callan Park would create new jobs, more business and more tax revenue for Daly City.

The executive committee also named sub-chairmen Frank Shreve for St. Francis Heights and Robert Young for Garden Valley. Edward Murphy, McRobert Steward and Jack DeBella will participate on the Westlake committee and are also members of the executive committee. Chairmen for Westlake and Top of the Hill committees have not yet been selected.

Other members of the executive committee are. Theresa Altieri, Thomas L. Bocci Jr., Sam Grado, Fred J. Lagomarsino, W. Don Lesher, Tony Masini, J. A. Rohl, John B. Schaeffer, Al Sereni and Doris Wimberly.

Members of the executive committee and the district subcommittees will contact Daly City clubs, civic organizations, professional and labor groups and all residents to organize support for the annexation.

Mission Bell Motel Man Brought To Community Hospital

Officer John Van Otten found Johnny L. Guerrerro, 48, Unit 129 of the Mission Bell Motel, lying in the doorway of his kitchen, complaining of pain and coughing blood Sunday morning.

The man complained of severe pain in his abdomen. He had recently had a major operation for stomach ulcers. Firemen administered oxygen until the Bay Area Ambulance arrived to bring him to Community Hospital.

+ TEEN TALK +

By Joe Bavaresco

Dear Mr. Bavaresco:

My girl and I have been going steady for four months. I am sixteen, and my girl is fifteen. I am going to leave town during our school vacation to work. She says we should break up for the summer and date other people; then, go back together again in the fall. I don't want to date other girls. Is she right, or am I? What should we do?

Gary N.

Dear Gary N.

If she wants to break up for the summer, she must not really be serious toward you. She is using the word "going steady" as a play word. If she wants to date others, let her. But, tell her first you are calling the whole thing off because if she wants to date others during the summer, she is not really in love. She is making a mockery of going steady. Going steady means you don't want to date any one else because you love or have a strong feeling for the one you are going steady with. Don't waste your time with her. The idea of breaking up for the summer is a very childish statement. Drop her. If she really loved you, she would not date anyone else. She would find a lot of other activities to keep her busy. She doesn't have to sit home, but she shouldn't date anyone else. Like the wise man said, "Girls are like trains, miss one, soon there'll be another one that'll come along."

* * *

Dear Mr. Bavaresco:

I am sixteen years old. The girls I chum around with are all around the same age. Their parents allow them to smoke, and even supply them with cigarettes. I smoke, but if my parents ever caught me, they'd kill me. I think if a girl does enjoy a cigarette, there's nothing wrong with it. What's your opinion of girls smoking? Are my parents wrong, or am I?

Girl Smoker

Dear Girl Smoker:

You are definitely wrong. There is nothing as sickening to see as a young, wholesome looking girl light up a cigarette. Not only does it cheapen a girl, but it's downright unhealthy. This applies to everyone. You asked me what I think, so I'm going to tell you.

Girls who smoke are only trying to look older or sophisticated, or both. If there is anything that does not look sophisticated, it's a teenage girl smoking. I have asked boys what they think of a girl who smokes. One boy told me "a girl who smokes is a girl you can tell a dirty joke in front of and she'll laugh. She will never be respected by any guy."

The minute she lights up a cigarette, she dims all respect any boy might have had for her. I talked to over 160 boys from different areas before I answered this letter. Every boy said the same thing, "There's nothing cheaper looking than a girl smoking." So girls, heed this advice. All you have to do is ask someone who's been smoking for a few years, and they'll tell you not to start. We all get old fast enough, don't rush it. If you are trying to be sophisticated, all you have to do is think of some of the people who are world famous for being sophisticated. You'll find that they do not smoke. There is no reason for teenage girls to smoke. Smoke stains your teeth, and makes your breath smell. Remember, even your best friends won't tell you! So if you want to look cheap, unhealthy, be unrespected, and ashamed to be seen with; light up a cigarette. All this can be achieved by that one action. See you next week?

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK: A gentleman offers a woman a cigarette, but a lady will refuse. This comes from Chuck Vertrano, seventeen year old Mission High School ex-yell leader, baseball letter man, voted best dressed boy, and boy with best sense of humor.

Bethel 198 Girls Attend 3-Day Convention At Oakland Center

The weekend of June 25-26 proved to be an exciting and educational one for the girls of Bethel 198, Daly City, International Order of Jobs Daughters.

The girls attended the Grand Bethel convention in Oakland, along with representatives from throughout California. The convention started Thursday, June 23, with Friday being the first day Bethel 198 attended. The girls were up early for registration at 8 a.m., and as the day progressed, the Grand Bethel session went on in the usual manner, with escorts and introductions taking the major part of the day. At 6 p.m. the elective officers attended a banquet at the Hotel Leamington and were back at the municipal auditorium by 8 for an entertaining variety show put on by the different Bethels of California. At this time the new Grand Bethel officers were announced.

On Saturday the drill competition was the biggest event for the girls. For most of the team, it was their first competition, and although only three military drill teams were competing, and they placed third, the team just a point behind second. That same evening the girls attended the installation of Grand Bethel officers and the Queen's Ball.

Sunday the girls were on the go early again, attending a necrology and church service at the auditorium. After such an enjoyable weekend, the girls of Bethel 198 are looking forward to attending the Supreme Convention in San Barbara during the month of August and competing in drill competition once again.

Bicycle Licenses May Be Received At Westlake Sites

More than 1350 bicycle licenses have been issued thus far but Sergeant Henry Sundermman stated that many more local youngsters still need to register for the tabs.

Bicycle licenses may be received at Westlake Park on July 18; Northridge Park on July 21; and the Westmoor High School parking area on July 22. Times for registrants is 9 a.m. to 12 noon.

A fee of 50 cents is charged for each license. The bicycle must be brought to the location in order that the officer can install the license and serial number on each bike.

Sundermann said 125 bicycles can be licensed in any one day so owners coming late will have to return at another time. He requested that children form a line in order to facilitate matters and avoid confusion. Additional times and dates will be set for other locations. Officer Richard deLosa is in charge of the registration.

Methodist Women Meet At Buri Buri

The Women's Society for Christian Service of uri-Buri Community Methodist Church will hold its regular monthly meeting on Monday, July 11, at 8 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall of the church.

Worship services will be conducted by Mrs. John Bassford. New members will be welcomed to the organization at this meeting.

The program for the evening is under the direction of Mrs. Harry Royer. A thought-provoking playlet entitled "I'm Going Back To Work" will be presented. Participating in the presentation are the Mesdames Asy Bullock, Daryl Chrisman, James P. Comer, Henry Dombroski, Joe Floro, Edward Gilstrap, Don Grissom, James Hammon, John Kernan, John McChesney, James Ragland, Ralph Reed, Richard Sherman, James Sherriff, James Stephens, Harold Thomas, and R. Tipus. Following the playlet, Mrs. Royer will lead a round table discussion regarding women returning to work, and the place of the church in their lives.

Refreshments will be served by members of the evening circle.

'Day On Navy' Trip Offered High Schoolers

High school junior and senior boys and their parents are invited to Treasure Island this Saturday for "A Day On The Navy."

The special program will consist of a boat trip around the island, Navy films, lunch in the mess, a tour of a destroyer escort, and an inspection of the Naval Reserve Training Center.

The program will begin about 9 a.m. and will end about 3 in the afternoon.

Local boys who wish to make the trip can secure passes by contacting Chief Wolf, Daly City recruiter, at PLaza 5-3089.

Some Answers For Veterans

Q—I am now getting compensation for a service-connected disability rated 10 per cent. Am I entitled to any more compensation for dependents?

A—No. The law does not authorize payments for dependents of veterans whose service-connected disabilities are found to be less than 50 per cent in degree.

* * *

Q—I will be going back to school this fall, under the GI Bill, but am not sure the course I have been taking is the right one for me. Would I be eligible for VA vocational counseling to help me choose a course better suited to my aptitudes? I have never changed courses.

A—Yes. If you decide you want to change course, write the VA a letter requesting vocational counseling. VA will schedule an appointment for you. Be sure and include your "C" number in request.

* * *

Q—A friend of ours who formerly was not eligible for VA pension because of his income will now be qualified under the new pension law. He is in need of regular aid and attendance. Can he be paid more because of that?

A—Yes. A veteran rated in need of regular aid and attendance may be paid $70 a month over and above pension payments determined according to his income.

* * *

Q—I am the widow of a Korea veteran and want to write VA about my eligibility for a pension. What kind of identifying information about my husband should I include in my letter?

Give your husband's full name and his VA claim number, if he had one, his serial number, date of birth, enlistment and discharge dates, and anything you think helpful.

New Pension Act For Veterans In Effect July 1

An additional reminder to veterans, dependents and survivors of veterans, was issued today by San Mateo County Veterans' Service Officer, Floyd D. Granger, that the new Pension Act of 1960 went into effect July 1.

There are many angles to the new law, the most important being the pensioner's own decision on whether to continue his present pension or choose to come under the new law. The Federal Veterans Administration, the service officer pointed out, has sent to each pensioner a brochure and other material to help him make this decision.

For example, veterans with working wives should be aware that all income of their spouse in excess of $1200 annually is considered to be available to the veteran under the new law. Therefore this income in excess of $1200 would have to be reported as part of the veteran pensioner's income, under the new law.

On the other hand, the VA says custodians and legal guardians of minor children receiving death pension would be wise to elect pension under the new law, for it raises the income limit for children from $1400 to $1800 per year. Earned income of the child is not included in this limit under the new law as it is under the present law.

A child receiving $27.30 per month under the old law, for example, can receive $35 per month under the new law. The VA advises custodians and legal guardians of minor children that there is no instance in which election of the new law will prove disadvantageous to a child.

Veterans and dependents are reminded once again, the service officer said, that once they have elected to come under the new law they may not return to the old system.

He invites pensioners and those who might qualify for pension under the new law to contact the County Veterans' Service Office at the courthouse in Redwood City for assistance and counseling.

Marian Council 3773, To Install Officers

Marian Council 3773, Knights of Columbus, will have installation of the recently elected officers for the year at 8 p.m. on Monday, July 18, at the Daly City Eagles Hall.

District Deputy James Maloney announced that the installing officer will be John Bayley, Past Grand Knight of San Leandro Council. Outgoing President of the St. Francis Chapter and incoming State Membership Chairman.

County's Summer Camps Serving Estimated 18,000 Youngsters

The 1960 Summer Day camping programs conducted by public and private agencies and held in San Mateo County Public and Private Park and recreation facilities are expected to serve over 18,000 boys and birls between the ages of 7 and 15.

Skills the youngsters and leaders will experience include: swimming, hiking, model building, nature lore, archery, skits, reflector, oven and spit cooking, tent pitching, lashing, building of tables and shower units, nature crafts and study, sports, arts, music, storytelling, dramatics, knot typing and first aid. The youngsters learn social and creative outdoor skills they enjoy now and can enjoy all their lives.

Huddart Park in Woodside is hosting the 195 intermediate Girl Scouts of Central San Mateo which includes the cities of Half Moon Bay, San Mateo and Burlingame. Coyote Point Park has 255 Central San Mateo Girl Scouts and 50 daycampers from the City of San Mateo Recreation Departments program.

Sequoia Y.M.C.A. serving the Redwood City Area will have daycamping sessions at Huddart Park. Camp Yoma is directed by Jean Berensmeier and is operated by the Peninsula Jewish Community Center. Their sessions are being held at Searsville Lake as is the Sequoia Area Brownie Camp. The City of Daly City will conduct their sessions at Junipero Serra Park and include in their program a special session for handicapped. The City of Redwood City Recreation Department conducts their sessions in their city parks.

Major Damage To Three Cars At Skyline Crash

Three cars needed repairs for major damage following a collision on fog bound Skyline boulevard near the Highway No. 1 overpass last Friday at 12:15 a.m.

Robert Lee Rosenthal, 30, 140 Shawnee Pass, Portola Valley, a salesman, was transported to Junipero Serra Hospital by Silva Ambulance. He was treated for a swollen upper lip which included a deep laceration.

The other drivers were Raymond R. Pitcock, 17, 1915 Downer avenue, San Bruno, a student, and David W. Marchant, 20, 24 DeBell drive, Atherton, also a student.

Marchant told Officers Jim Doran and William Schumacher that his engine had stalled. Pitcock said he applied the brakes and skidded to a stop as he hit Marchant's left front fender. Rosenthal said he felt sleepy and didn't see a car until he felt the jolt. He was said to have hit the rear left fender of Marchant's auto.

Both Rosenthal and Pitcock were handed citations for violation of the basic speed law.

YWCA & City Classes Prove Very Popular

"The Sweet Smell of Success," though a recent movie title, could very well be the description of the special children's summer classess, already in session, sponsored by the YWCA and the Department of Parks and Recreation of Daly City.

Even though these classes were specially prepared for the summer program, they have been so popular that they will begin again in September, and it would be wise to watch this newspaper for the announcement in the fall. The classes include Ballet and Basic Dance, for ages 3 to 14; Tap and Acrobatics, 6 to 12 years; Hawaiian Dane, 6 to 14 years; Ballroom, 11 to 17 years; Charm, 11 to 14 years, and golf, ages 7 to 17.

There will be many other classes offered for children this fall as well as a complete adult program. As special added features of the YWCA program there will be Tiny Tot's classes beginning September 27 for the pre-school children, and a unique afternoon teenage program designed for Westmoor High School students who will be on half-day sessions. For any additional information call the YWCA office at PL 6-7370.

Record Number Of Scouts, Explorers To Attend Camps

A record number of 1280 Boy Scouts and Explorers and 90 volunteer leaders will attend the San Mateo County Council's three camps this summer, according to John M. Linden, chairman of the council camping committee.

An additional 144 Scouts and leaders will participate in the National Jubilee Jamboree of the Boy Scouts of America at Colorado Springs, Colorado.

Approximately 680 Scouts will be at Camp Pomponio, located on Pescadero Creek near La Honda. In the heart of a redwood grove, Pomponio's program features training in outdoor skills, aquatics, marksmanship and archery. Feeding is done through a central kitchen and dining hall under the direction of skilled chefs.

District Executive James Taylor, East Palo Alto, will serve as camp director assisted by District Executives T. I. Worswick, San Mateo, and Braley Pastorino, Montara, associate directors.

A newly constructed swimming pool will be opened at Camp Ed Barrer for the 236 Scouts living Jamboree style in the heart of the Mother Lode Country near Angel's Camp. Hiking, Boating, swimming and fields archery will supplement the Scouts skills programs offered.

Directing the camp will be Field Director Lynn Austin, Redwood City, with District Executive John Grist, San Mateo, as his associate.

About 365 Scouts and Explorers will attend Camp Kit Carson located at Twin Lakes below Carson Pass. Program Specialties include trail camping, pack trips, canoeing, boating and swimming.

District Executives Ernest Casados, San Bruno, and Al Paulus, Pacifica, will direct the program.

San Mateo County's Jamboree contingent will leave from San Francisco International Airport July 17 and 18 and will tour the Colorado Rockies, Denver and the U. S. Air Force Academy prior to the opening of the Jamboree July 21. The groups will return July 29 and 30.

Although the Cape Hatteras Lighthouse in North Carolina is operated by the U. S. Coast Guard, it is actually owned by the National Park Service.

THE RBV. Thomas F. Regan, executive director of Catholic Social Service for San Mateo County, has been appointed a member of the Community Mental Health Advisory Board zy the Board of Supervisors of San Mateo County. Father Regan was a member of the original Child Guidance Commission of San Mateo County and served a term as the chairman of its board of directors.

Legion Post 410 Installs New Officers

Newly elected officers of Daly City American Legion Post and Auxiliary 410, were installed Thursday evening.

Jack Flynn, Past Department of California and present National Executive Committeeman, was among the guest speakers. He announced that this year California had sent to "Boy's State" 815 high school youths, "Girl's State" had 457 delegates sponsored by Legion auxiliaries.

Margaret I. Duncan, representative to Girl's State from Jefferson High School and sponsored by Brisbane Unit 473 and Daly City Unit 410 of the auxiliary, gave a highly informative speech on her 10-day stay on the Davis campus of University of California. Margaret is a senior at Jefferson High.

Mrs. Louis J. Duncan, 271 Humboldt street, Brisbane, mother of Margaret, was also present. She stated, "it was amazing how much Margaret had learned about city, state, and national government."

Ray and Ruth Brulez, headed the delegation of guests from Old Glory Post 2044, Daly City's Post and Auxiliary of the Veterans of Foreign Wars. Many distinuished guests from 7th and 8th districts, as well as 5th, 25th, and 26th districts were also present.

The evening ended with refreshments, served by Catherine Foreman, Grace Hill, Vivian Pahkla, and Irma Magnuson.

'Penny Carnival' This Friday At Westmoor High

It's here again! The annual Penny Carnival sponsored by the Daly City Recreation Department will be held at three sites this summer.

The first carnival, at Westmoor High School, will be held Friday, July 8. The second carnival, at Marchbanks Park, will be held Friday, July 15, and the third and final carnival of the summer will be held at Garden Village School on Friday, July 22. The time for these events will be from noon until 3 p.m. at each location.

There will be exciting games of skill and prizes for all. Some of the games will be "Feed the Clown," Milk Bottle Throw, Balloon Pop, and the ever popular Fishing Booth. The games will be priced from 1-5 cents and refreshments will be sold.

Interested youngsters should sign up with their leaders as soon as possible to get in on the fun.

BF Vice Principal John Belforte Attends NEA Meet In Los Angeles

Vice Principal John Belforte of Daly City's Benjamin Franklin School was among more than 15,000 teachers and other educators who attended the 98th annual convention of the National Education Association, June 26 through July 1, in Los Angeles.

The NEA, with a membership of more than 700,000, is the world's largest professional organization.

Theme of the week-long meeting was "A United Profession Enhances Quality in Education." General meetings were held in the Shrine Civic Auditorium or in the Memorial Sports Arena. Hundreds of other meetings, by NEA departments, committees, and commissions, were held in auditoriums and hotels. Topics ranged from such practical classroom problems as the use of teaching machines to long-range planning toward an adequate space age curriculum.

Highlighting the business session was consideration of a proposal to make a bachelor's degree mandatory for NEA membership, and a report on a group insurance plan for teachers under sponsorship of the NEA.

Among resolutions considered was lowering of the voting age to 18, an affirmation of the rights of teachers to take part in political activity, and a strong stand on federal support for education.

Name speakers addressing the convention were Representative Lee Metcalf, (D-Mont.); Senator John Sherman Cooper (R-Ky.); Miss Pauline Frederick, U. N. correspondent for the National Broadcasting Co.; U. S. Commissioner of Education, Lawrence G. Derthick; Movie Star Jeff Chandler; and Mrs. Rollin Brown, chairman of the recent White House Conference on Children and Youth.

An annual high spot of the convention was the presentation of the "School Bell Awards" for distinguished interpretive reporting on education. This year, awards are going to 35 winners in the fields of publishing and broadcasting.

Miss Clarice Kline, head of the social science department at Waukesha (Wis.) High School, became president of the NEA at the close of the convention. She succeeds Walter W. Miss Pacifica (Frances Schrumpf) Yearns To Become A Physician

Doctors should be better looking in the future.

That is, if there are more Frances Schrumpf, the Miss Pacifica who will be competing with winners from 10 other Peninsula cities for the title of San Mateo County "Dream Girl" to reign over the 26th annual Fair and Fiesta Aug. 5-13.

Pert, blond Frances, 16, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter D. Schrumpf, has wanted to be a doctor as long as she can remember.

"I started out nursing animals," she said. "That's when I thought I'd like to be a nurse."

But when her older sister died of heart trouble, Frances decided to become a heart specialist.

"I'm hoping," she said, "to go to medical school in Heidelberg, Germany, . . . if I can afford it."

Not that this A average student's interests are all clinical. Besides serving as boatswain of her Marin Scout troop when they go sailing on Lake Merced, Frances is also an active ice skater.

"It's sort of been handed down in our family," she explained. "My grandfather learned in Germany and taught his sons. Then my father taught me."

Frances can figure skate, but admits that speed skating is the most fun.

"Maybe I think so just because I'm better at it," she laughed.

This Westmoor senior acts as a high school judge too.

"Whenever a student breaks a school law," she said, "he's brought into court and tried by the judge and an 8-man jury."

What kind of laws?

"Oh, really serious ones, like sitting on the Senior Bench when you're not really a senior."

Two DC Girls Finish High In Rodeo Contest

Queen Diane Wallace of Gilroy has begun her reign over the 21st annual Redwood City rodeo and Fourth of July celebration.

If the last name sounds familiar, it is because Diane's sister, Regina, was queen last year and a third sister, Patricia, placed second in last year's competition.

Diane was first in horsemanship and scholarship, having a straight A average at Gilroy High School.

The pretty 16-year-old queen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Wallace of Gilroy. She won a $500 college scholarship from the sponsoring Peninsula Celebration Association and will ride in the three grand entries of the Redwood City rodeo July 2, 3 and 4, as well as lead the big parade Monday at 10 a.m. in downtown Redwood City.

Tying for third place were Darlene Triano of Carlmont High School in San Carlos and Mary DiMaggio of Westmoor High Schol in Daly City. The other seventeen contestants who will reign as princesses include: Frances Fitzgibbons of Daly City; Anna Mary Davis of San Mateo; Jacquie Housman and Veronica Freeman of Los Altos; Julie Eagan of Menlo Park. Also Beverly Alexander and Carol Stevenson of Palo Alto; Robyn Duvall of Sky-Londa; Carol Pifari, Sue Mayberry and Lynn Carlton of Woodside; Judy Johnson, Sue Maggs and Joanne Bozio of Redwood City.

3 Jefferson Grads Enlist Here In Army

Three Jefferson High School graduates of Daly City have enlisted in the United States Army under the terms of the "High School Graduate Specialist Program."

The new recruits are: Jim Eberle, son of Mrs. John Eberle, 353 2nd avenue, Colma; John Featherstone, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eberle, 353 2nd avenue, Colma; John Featherstone, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Featherstone, 179 Abbot street, and Victor Steyrer, son of Mrs. Steyrer, 6458 Mission street.

Upon completion of basic training, they will be assigned to fields of their choice.

Men interested in Army opportunities should contact SFC Tom Scannell at 6705 Mission street, Daly City, or call PL 5-6300 for appointments.

Jefferson Grad Receives Art Scholarship

Robert L. Echols, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. Echols, 157 Alexander avenue, Daly City, has won an Art Scholarship to the 31st annual summer session of the San Francisco Academy of Art, announced Richard Stephens Jr., director of the school.

Echols, a June graduate of Jefferson High School, will attend summer session, tuition free, from June 20 through August 1, explained Stephens. Echols, who studied at Jefferson High under the direction of Donald A. Carlson, plans to major in Fine Art at the Academy of Art.

Westlake Kennel Club Installs New Officers

The Westlake Kennel Club held its installation dinner at the Steak Pit Saturday, June 25. The incoming officers were introduced by Joseph Kelly, president of Pacifica Dog Fanciers club.

John Hunt was installed as president, Ralph Silva as first vice president, E. A. Hercsuth as second vice president, Mrs. Mary Hercsuth as treasurer. The following members of the board were also installed: Clarence Smith, Mrs. Doris Silva, Mrs. Betty Carpenter, and Richard Gomes.

An engraved plaque was presented to Clarence Smith in appreciation of his service during the last two terms as president.

The club colors of purple and gold were carried out in dog show type rosettes as place cards and lavender and gold iris graced the tables. The club banner and the American flag were also displayed. The chairman of the entertainment committee, Doris Silva, succeeded in making the atmosphere one of true gaiety.

The affair was well attended by members and their guests. Mrs. Amy Hunt as treasurer.

Thomas Shimer Yorke Council's New Leader

Grand Knight Patrick R. Maloney of Father Peter Yorke Council 4119 opened and conducted the last meeting of his term and gave his final address, thanking his staff of officers for their cooperation the past year.

He concluded his term by turning over the gavel to Thomas E. Shimer, Grand Knight-elect who will guide the Council during the year 1960-61.

Shimer joined the order in Denver, Colorado, and upon his move to California he transferred to San Mateo Council where he remained a member until the formation of Father Peter Yorke Council where he bacame a Charter member. The new Grand Knight has held the offices of Warden, Deputy Grand Knight and General Program Chairman.

He is a graduate of St. John's University of Collegeville, Minnesota where he majored in accounting. He is president of St. Robert's Conference, St. Vincent de Paul Society, Treasurer of Particular Council St. Vincent de Paul Society, and Past President of St. Robert's Men's Club and Holy Name Society.

Shimer resides at 764 Linden avenue, San Bruno, with Mrs. Shimer and their twin sons.

New Law Protects Veterans 'Service Connection' Cases

A grant of "service connection" which has been in force for 10 or more years in veteran disability and death cases will be protected under a new law signed by the President.

This was reported today by Glenn Corbitt, Manager of VA's Northern California Regional Office, who explained that the new law become effective on January 1, 1962.

The only exceptions under the law (Public Law 86-501, signed June 10), Corbitt said, would be cases in which there is a showing that the original grant of service connection by the Veterans Administration was based on fraud, or where it is clearly shown from military records that the veteran concerned did not have the required service, or lacked the proper character of discharge from service.

"Service connection" is established by the VA when it is found that a veteran's injury or disease was incurred in or aggravated by active service in line of duty during wartime or peacetime service.

Establishment of service connection is necessary before disabled veterans can become eligibel for monthly disability compensation payments, and also gives wartime veterans priority for admission to VA hospitals, as well as eligibility for certain other benefits.

Widows of deceased veterans also will be protected under the same provisions of the new law in all cases where the widow's benefits are based on the service-connected disabilities of the veterans, Corbitt continued.

Corbitt stressed that the protection afforded by the new law does not become effective until January 1, 1962.

David J. Guido With Artillery Unit In Korea

Army Pfc. David J. Guido, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Guido, 551 Crocker avenue, Daly City, recently arrived in Korea and is now a member of the 25th Artillery.

Guido, a communications specialist in the artillery's Battery A, entered the Army in July 1959 and received basic combat training at Fort Ord. He was last stationed at Fort Carson, Colorado.

Before entering the Army, the 24-year-old soldier was employed by Pacific Telephone and Telegraph, San Francisco. He is a 1955 graduate of Jefferson High School.

'Old Glory' VFW Units Launch Summertime Membership Drive

Delegates from Old Glory Post 2044, Veterans of Foreign Wars, and its Ladies Auxiliary returned Saturday from the Department of California Convention in San Diego. Headquarters were at the U.S. Grant Hotel.

Nominations and election of new officers of the Department of California, and the installation ceremonies were interesting and colorful. Delegates brought back to Daly City's Old Glory Post 2044 and its Ladies Auxiliaries three awards. They reecived first in poppy sales. Proceeds from the recent poppy sales were larger than any previous year. The window display installed through the courtesy of McGraw Bros. at their pharmacy, Hillside and Mission street, received many compliments. They took third place in membership, as well as ways and means. Nine resolutions were passed, and will go on to national convention.

The months of July through October will be devoted mainly to a membership drive. To become a member of Old Glory Ladies Auxiliary it is not necessary to have a member of the family in a V.F.W.. Post, only that the male member, or some member of the family be eligible to join a post. Women not less than 16 years of age who are citizens of the United States or who may become citizens of the United States.

Mothers, wives, widows, sisters, half-sisters, foster daughters and daughters, foster mothers, who were in that status, before the service was rendered, of deceased or honorably discharged officers or enlisted men, women, who have had service in the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Air Force or Coast Guard of the United States, entitling them to the award of a campaign badge, as specified by rules governing eligibility in the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States are invited to join.

They must have had service in time of war or during a campaign or expedition for which service a campaign badge has been authorized, and have in their possesison or entitled to an honorable discharge. Wives of veterans who were married in foreign countries during the period of campaign medal service in which the veteran served outside the continental limits of the United States, and wives of foreign birth who came to the United States under the War Brides Act, and ultimately married eligible veterans, all of whom must have declared their intention to become citizens of the United States, also are eligible.

Membership dues are not excessive. Being a member of the V.F.W. or its Ladies Auxiliary is not only a privilege, but also much companionship and pleasure is derived from this association. Assisting in the welfare of veterans and their families, remembering the almost forgotten patients of former wars in our V.A. hospitals. Members in both Post and Auxiliary range from 17 up to Senior Citizens. Eligible applicants will find their age group easily.

Meetings are held the third Thursday of each month, in Daly City's War Memorial building. County Council meets once a month in Redwood City. District meetings are held every three months, usually in Santa Cruz. Car pools are organized for the out-of-town affairs. Old Glory Post 2044 V.F.W. and its Ladies Auxiliary invite all eligible applicants to phone DE 3-3749, MO 4-9015, or DE 3-5696.

TV and Radio

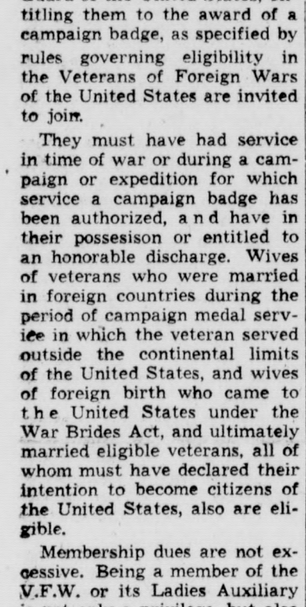
By Mona Baker

With a tiny silhouette of an "Emmy," the press sticker that fits in the right-hand corner of the car windshield said "Press, special parking, National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences"—so past the guard at the gate and into the parking lot of NBC's magnificent television studios in Burbank we drove to attend "television's night of the year"—the annual "Emmy Awards." Leaving our car we were directed into the studios through the artist's entrance.

Meeting simultaneously in both New York and Hollywood, the television organization followed a different procedure in presenting the awards this year with emphasis on simplicity. The Hollywood stars gathered for the NBC telecast in a specially constructed "theatre in the round" elegant in lovely shades of blue and green. This year's telecast was the first time the awards had been in color. Next door a studio was set up with typewriters and six color monitors so the press could follow the proceedings. After each award was announced, the winners were brought into the press studio for photographs and interviews.

As the last award was given the guests gathered in another studio for a buffet dinner. There we had an opportunity to talk informally with some of the stars and to get a closer peek at the lovely gowns that make "Emmy Night" almost a fashion show in itself. Particularly stunning were three stars who were nominated for awards. Simply radiating happiness and charm, lovely Jane Wyatt, with her gold Emmy tucked under her arm, was demure in a soft blue satin princess gown. Flashing her warm and friendly smile, Dinah Shore was glamorous in a shimmering gold gown as sparkling as her eyes. Looking as exquisite as a dainty flower, Loretta Young was charming in a floating gown of yellow chiffon. There were many other beautiful fashions that made the evening as exciting as a Paris opening.

As to the award show itself, it was far more impressive than in previous years. Although entertaining, there was none of the slackstick comedy that marred former telecasts and the program definitely gained in stature and dignity. This was the twelveth year of awards for the National Academy of television Arts and Sciences which has a membership of more than 5000 derived from every facet of the industry, and includes chapters in New York, Los Angeles, Chicago, Baltimore, Washington, D.C., and Arizona. Other activities of the organization include forums, seminars, workshops to discover and develop acting, directing and writing talent, a Lecture and Service Bureau to aid the development of educational television, and fellowships and scholarships.



The New Year's Resolution

WHENCE is this monstrousness? and to what end? The mind commands the body, and it obeys instantly; the mind commands itself, and is resisted.
—St. Augustine (354-430)
Early Church father

Be stirring as the time; be fire with fire;
Threaten the threatener and outface the brow
Of bragging horror: so shall inferior eyes,
That borrow their behaviors from the great,
Grow great by your example and put on
The dauntless spirit of resolution.
—William Shakespeare
(1564-1616)

Mr. Johnson this year wrote, "I have now spent fifty-five years in resolving; having from the earliest time almost that I can remember, been forming schemes of a better life. I have done nothing. The need of doing therefore is pressing, since the time of doing is short. O God, grant me to resolve aright, and to keep my resolutions."
—James Boswell (1740-1795)
In his Life of Samuel Johnson

Westlake Meeting Fetes Anniversary Of Prophet's Death

Baha'is of Daly City will observe the 110th anniversary of the death of the Bab, prophet-herald of their Faith on Friday, July 8, at a meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Kalles of 92 Woodland in Westlake. This day is comparable to Good Friday, anniversary of Christ's crucifixion, according to Mrs. Joseph Schultz, a spokesman for the local Baha'i group.

Although only 30 years old at the time he was executed by a firing squad in Tabriz, Iran, the Bab witnessed the acceptance of his teachings by thousands of Iranians. He taught that "the world is one country and mankind its citizens; there is only one religion and all the prophets have taught it."

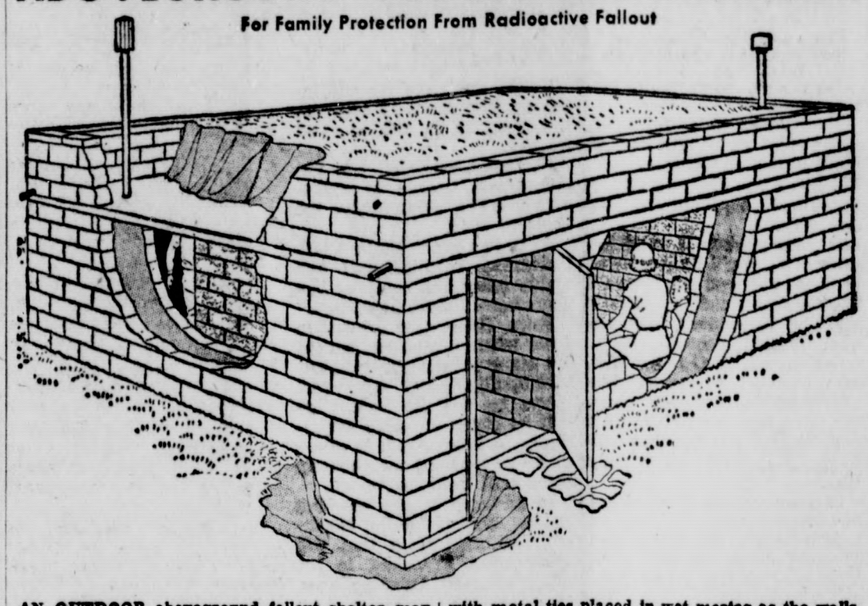
The Bab taught his followers that another Prophet would appear shortly whose mission would be to establish on earth the kingdom of God promised by Christ. In 1863, Baha'u'llah (meaning the Glory of God) declared from his prison cell in Baghdad, that he was the one promised by the Bab.

Today millions of Baha'is in more than 250 countries recognize Baha'u'llah as the return of the Spirit of Christ. They accept His teachings as guidance from God for this critical period in the history of mankind.

The Rice Growers Association of California numbers more than 1500 grower-members in the Sacramento and San Joaquin valleys.

ABOVEGROUND DOUBLE-WALL SHELTER

For Family Protection From Radioactive Fallout



AN OUTDOOR aboveground fallout shelter may be built of concrete blocks. It is recommended for houses without basements or for regions where water or rock is close to the surface, making it impractical to build an underground shelter. Two walls of concrete blocks are constructed at least 20 inches apart. The space between is filled with gravel or earth. The walls are held together with metal ties placed in wet mortar as the walls are built. The roof is a six-inch slab of reinforced concrete, covered with at least 20 inches of gravel or earth. Most people would have to hire a contractor to build this shelter. Plans appear in the OCDM 32-page booklet, "The Family Fallout Shelter." For free copies write: Box Home Shelter, OCDM, Battle Creek, Mich.

RABBI SHAPIRO WELCOMED BY TEMPLE JUDEA CONGREGATION

Members of Congregation Judea last week welcomed Rabbi and Mrs. Robert W. Shapiro and their children, who arrived from Boston, Massachusetts. Rabbi Shapiro assumed the pulpit of Congregation Judea July 1 and will address the Congregation this Friday evening, July 8, 8:30 p.m., at the Temple House, 95 South Mayfair avenue, in Westlake.

Rabbi Shapiro has an extensive background in religious education as well as special knowledge in the field of psychology. He comes to Congregation Judea from the pulpit of Temple Israel in Boston, where he was assistant to Rabbi Roland B. Gittelsohn. While in Boston, he was a faculty member of the Moston Center for Adult Education and received a fellowship to study in the Institute on Psychology and Psychiatry at the Brandeis University.

Everyone is invited to attend the service, to meet and hear Rabbi Shapiro, and to enjoy the social and reception following.

Pre-registration for both Judea Sunday School and Hebrew School is now being taken at the Temple Office, PL 5-6362, 95 South Mayfair avenue. Classes are rapidly being filled and all parents are urged to contact the Temple Office regarding enrollment while limited space is still available. The Sunday School meets at the Westlake Elementary School, Lake Vista and Fieldcrest avenues. Children are accepted for enrollment in the Pre-Kindergarten class one year prior to the eligibility of their acceptance in public school. Registration may be made up to Confirmation. A religious school curriculum, which will be under the supervision of Rabbi Shapiro, will be in accordance to that of the most modern and highest quality of Reform congregations throughout the country. Children ages 9 years and up are eligible for enrollment in the weekday Hebrew School which is under the supervision of the Bureau of Jewish Education of San Francisco.

Membership in Congregation Judea includes Sunday School and Hebrew School enrollment, High Holyday seats and many other privileges. For further information regarding membership and Religious School registration, please contact the Temple Office.

Calls are now coming in rapidly for High Holyday seats at Congregation Judea. Services are scheduled to be held at the First Unitarian Church, Franklin and Geary streets, San Francisco, again this year. Ample parking facilities will be available. Traditional music will be provided by Cantor Harold Wachter, assisted by an eleven-voice professionally trained choir with Dr. W. Leonard Beck at the pipe organ.

LITTLE LEAP

... OVER A BIG BOULDER

With Lou Lucia

We hate a poet who puts in any word just to rhyme,
According to he, every sentence must be in ¾ time;
He'll make each sentence just long enough to Fittttttt.
And to him, linguist that he is, it won't matter a bittttttt.

Without abandon he'll chop words—like putting in eterne,
But let a censor correct the mis-spelling and he'll burne;
He'll get so angry he'll surely say more than just durne,
Thus in this manner we all live and in a way, too, learne.

He'll never use a phrase like "Cat On A Hot Tin Roof,"
Instead, "Look at the poor cat it sure doesn't look aloof";
To him each word that he writes is pure as all perfection,
Ha, Ha, even believes it will earn him resurrection.

But maybe we shouldn't laugh for this isn't the one that is last,
Must admit however, that we're writing this just for the blast;
We're typing this in order that we may gain our meal repast,
Not to be nailed as in the picture "Two Years Before the Mast."

Don't want to give the impression that all poets are bad,
They are both joyous, sorrowful, happy and sad;
And though we don't exactly care for their profession,
I guess you realized this is a "confession."

THE "Voice of the Fiesta" this year will more than likely use football signals for his microphone test countdown. Joe Whipp, 19, will be the loud speaker voice announcing everything from special events to lost moppets during the 26th annual San Mateo County Fair and Floral Fiesta, August 5-13. He's also a member of the College of San Mateo's football squad and boxing team. Son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Whipp of San Mateo, Joe was selected after he competed with nine other students in a series of tests held at CSM to determine the outstanding speech student. The "Voice of the Fiesta" originated with fair manager William M. Wilson three years ago. Wilson got Dr. Merrill C. Hansen, head of the speech and drama department at CSM, interested in the idea and Hansen devised the selection process.

OBITUARIES

Delbert G. Turner

Funeral services last Friday paid lasting tribute to Delbert Glen Turner, 65, a Daly City resident the past 30 years at 195 Winchester street. He died on June 28 at his residence after a long illness.

Born in Wisconsin, he had lived in California 40 years.

A World War I veteran, he was employed by the United State Post Office in San Francisco for 28 years. The past four years he was with the City Title Insurance Company.

He is survived by his wife, Katherine; his daughter, Jane Thomson; brothers and sisters, Mrs. Ella Ackerman of Cassville, Wisconsin; Mrs. Mary Fritz of Potasi, Wisconsin; Mrs. Margaret Ogden of Kernville, Oregon; Mrs. Mildred Kisschbaum of Glenhaven, Wisconsin; Mrs. Carrie Greenwood of Wheaton, Illinois; Eugene and Elmer Turner, both of Dubuque, Iowa; and he leaves a grandson, Ricky Thomson.

W. C. Lasswell and Company handled funeral arrangements. Burial was at Golden Gate National Cemetery.

Anita Dimassimo

Funeral services last Thursday morning at W. C. Lasswell's paid final tribute to Mrs. Anita Dimassimo, 3123 San Jose avenue, Daly City, who died June 27 at Notre Dame Hospital in San Francisco.

A native of Italy, she had lived in California 56 years.

She was the wife of the late Pietro (Tony) Dimassimo, the mother of Albert and Eleanor Dimassimo, Mrs. Almo Gross and Mrs. Thelma Gerrans; the sister of Mrs. Gilda DeVincenzi and Mrs. Livia Beretta. She is survived by nieces and nephews and six grandchildren.

Requiem Mass was celebrated at Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church. Burial was at Italian cemetery.

CAROLYN GARDELLA SAYS VOWS WITH IRVIN FIALKOWSKI

Miss Carolyn Gardella of Daly City became the wife of Irvin C. Fialkowski Jr. of Elgin, Illinois, in a double ring ceremony at Perpetual Help Church. The Rev. Father Matthew Sullivan officiated.

The bride, a graduate of Jefferson High School, is employed by Bank of America. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Steve Gardella, 419 Irvington street, Daly City. Carolyn's grandmother is Mrs. Rose Gardella of 98 Crocker avenue.

The groom attended St. Edwards High School in the Illinois city. He is employed by Goodyear Tire Company.

Miss Juanita O'Toole was maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Arlene Fialkowski and Gail Smith. Stan Anderson was best man. The ushers were Bill Sievers Jr. and Joe Pepper.

The wedding reception at The Village in San Francisco was attended by 150 relatives and friends.

The couple have established residence at 436 Irvington street, Daly City.

Cancer Society Thanks Helpers; County's Goal Optimistic $92,450

Nine Peninsula hospitals, schools and research centers are participating in a major cancer research effort which to date has represented a public investment of $3,080,038.34, today reported San Mateo County Cancer Society President Mrs. Edward H. Jenanyan.

The funds have been made possible by years of dedicated effort such as that contributed by the 5000 San Mateo county volunteers whose fund drive and educational efforts have produced record life-saving results annually.

The society expects to top its $92,450 fund goal this year, according to Mrs. Jenanyan, who adds, "It's entirely thanks to the tireless work of our volunteers, who are performing one of the greatest services to humanity." Annual fund drive figures for the society will be issued shortly.

Since 1946 the Cancer Society has promoted research at Stanford University the Palo Alto Medical Research Foundation, Santa Clara County Hospital, San Francisco County Hospital, Mt. Zion, Children's Hospitals in San Francisco, the University of San Francisco and the University of California at San Francisco.

Amplified on a national scale the $80,000,000 spent in research has saved 150,000 lives last year and will save another 150,000 this year. It means every four minutes another American who had cancer is saved.

"That's what a contribution to the Cancer Society has done," adds Mrs. Jenanyan, "But it's still not enough when we remember that last year more school children died of cancer than of any other disease. That's why we are intensifying our service, education and fund-raising effort this year more than ever."

Anyone interested on obtaining informative literature or contributing to the society may contact county headquarters at 320 Third avenue in San Mateo.

Boat Owners Cautioned By Highway Patrol

Captain John W. Kennedy, commander of the California Highway Patrol's Redwood City area, cautions boat owners who tow their boats over public roads to be sure they have the proper turn signals and other safety requirements on their cars and trailers.

"California law requires trailers carrying loads that extend 24 inches or more to the left of the center of the steering wheel of the towing vehicle to be equipped with either signal lamps or an approved mechanical signal device," Captain Kennedy said.

"Other equipment required on trailers includes one red tail lamp, a license plate lamp, one red reflector and a stop lamp. Two tail lamps and two stop lamps are required on trailers first registered after January 1, 1958. In addition, the towing vehicle must be equipped with a mirror reflecting a view of the highway 200 feet to the rear."

Captain Kennedy emphasized that trailer hitches must be properly and securely mounted, with a legal safety chain to control the trailer if the hitch should fail.

"Finally, I want to remind every trailer owner that the maximum legal speed while towing a trailer of any kind is 45 miles an hour," Captain Kennedy declared.

AND YOU THINK YOU DON'T LIKE THE GIANTS? Since the Giants have been falling down the beanstalk of National League teams, many of the fans here have been rather disgusted with them. However, the wrath of New Jerseyites in much stronger. Sister Filomena, a nun who teaches parochial school youngsters, states that the children there really dislike the locals. She said they take out pictures of Giant players, lay them on the floor face up, and then jump up and down on them with all their might. Hatred cuts a mighty deep wound.

ENGINEERING AND ECONOMICS: Dick Norman, Stanford's fine quarterback last year, had a good target in end Ben Robinson. Norman, an engineering major, made the most of his passes while Robinson, an economics major, surely knew the quickest way to the goal line. Incidentally, of the 66 men on the squad, 22 were engineering majors. Coach Jack Curtice no doubt believed they could have engineered more touchdowns though.

Male Athletes At Capuchino Now In Back Seat To Cal

San Bruno's Capuchino High School has long been noted as an outstanding sports school, winning championship after championship in men's athletics, but the most furor in that city is currently being whipped up by a female athlete.

Pat Daniels, 16, is a serious contender for an 880 meter Olympic berth and also hopes to compete in the Nationals for broad jumping honors.

The long-stemmed femme set three records and was the Western States meet only triple threat winner. Miss Daniels out-ran competitor Judy Shapiro, of Los Angeles, by four yards in the 880 meter run and then broke her own Western Women's record with a leap of 17-4 in the running broad jump.

She then returned to cap off a "day's work" by anchoring the San Mateo relay team to a decisive rout over the San Francisco squad.

Miss Daniels will compete in the National AAU Women's Championships and Olympic Trials, this Saturday and on July 16.

Excelsior, BYA Meet For Junior League Crown

Daly City Boys Await Examiner Baseball School At Jeff High

Hey, kids, how would you like to ——

Have Augie Galan for a hitting coach? . . . Learn how to pitch from Con Dempsey? . . . Let Bob Fatjo give you tips on throwing? . . . Field the Milt Axt way?

If your answer is what we think it is, you'll be interested to know that you can have all this for free simply by attending The Examiner's 15th annual Baseball School.

Conducted by Oscar Vitt, who went on to manage the Cleveland Indians after playing third base for both Detroit and Boston, it will visit Jefferson High School in Daly City.

Classes, which are scheduled for Monday, July 11, will be held from 2 to 4 p.m. for boys 13 years old and under.

Purpose of the school is to teach you how to play the game the correct way.

Vitt and his staff will demonstrate the fundamentals in a way that all pupils will be able to grasp quickly. And what better teachers could aspiring Babe Ruths have than:

Galan, an outfielder and infielder who spent 18 consecutive years in the major leagues.

Dempsey, who led the Pacific Coast League in strikeouts while pitching for the Seals in 1948.

Axt, former Santa Clara University catching star and highly successful coach at San Francisco's Polytechnic High.

Fatjo, Bellarmine Prep (San Jose) mentor, who has turned out many professional players.

Naturally, every boy who shows up for the instruction will be given an equal opportunity to learn. And, as usual, autographed membership cards will be issued to all.

In addition to the teaching classes, tyrouts for the Northern California team that will oppose San Francisco in the school's traditional all-star game (at the City's Golden Gate Park, July 17) are scheduled.

The two top performers in the July 17 contest will go on to New York — all expenses paid — with Vitt to participate in the Hearst Sandlot Classic.

EXAMINER Baseball School teachers will be at Jefferson High School's diamond this Monday from 2 to 4 p.m. to instruct boys 13-years-old and older. From left to right are Oscar Vitt, Bob Fatjo, Augie Galan, Con Dempsey and Milt Axt. All have either played in the higher leagues or coached baseball teams.

Marg Clark, Wayne Funai Lead Junior Keglers At Westlake Bowl

By Bob Sexton

The young kegling competitors of Westlake Bowl used last week as a tuneup for two match games to be held this Saturday. The Senior Boys take on a senior team from the Sea Bowl at 12 noon while a second senior match with Westlake's little brother, the Mission Bowl, is set for 2 p.m.

Both matches will be rolled at Westlake. Many of the Bay Area's top junior bowlers will be competing. Such names as Rick Urrea, Randy Wilcox, Jack Petric, Steve Funai and Joe Marasco of Westlake will be matching skill with Park Bowl's high scoring George Wade and Chris Corey.

All of these lads composed the hard core of the very successful San Francisco BPA Junior Traveling League that just climaxed last month. Marasco has a practice game of 274 to his credit, while Corey and Wade are frequently up in the 250's and 260's. In an informal meeting of this kind, anything can happen.

These matches are the first of a series to be held at Westlake. It will be a reciprocal arrangement with other local bowls. One home match and one away match are being arranged.

A problem exists with securing competition for the Bantam boys and Junior girls of Westlake, as many junior programs are not well supplied with the 12 and under age group during the summer.

* * *

In last week's bowling highlights, Marg Clark was high in her Junior Girls league with a 417 series. Wayne Funai was top man in the Junior Boys department as he rolled a bruising 524 series to surpass his 137 average by a whopping 113 pins. Wayne is the brother of Steve Funai, the standout athlete from Westmoor High School. Steve is rated as one of Westlake's ten top junior bowlers and probably the most consistent. Wayne's games were 189-155-180. In the same league Mike McLaughlin posted a 159 triplicate, highest in the junior program so far this year.

Tom diLustro was high in his Bantam Boys league with a 264 series for two games. In the Bantam Girls, newcomer Judy Oliva posted a fine series of 281, behind games of 140-141. Wednesday bantam competition saw Don Costello roll a 288 series. Don's games were 145-143.

Jim Pistolesi, who probably does more bowling than any five senior boys combined, turned in the high series for his league as he soared to a 566. Jim's games were all below 200 but all consistent, 183-198-175. Behind Jim were Steve Funai and Frank Blum with 534 and 530 respectively.

A new bowler had the senior league bug-eyed Saturday with strings of strikes. Lynn Andersen, 17-year-old beginner two months ago, started his first game in a new house among new friends with three strikes in a row, then had an open and came back with three more consecutive strikes. His next shot was a 6-7 split; this he promptly picked up and followed with a strike. In the important 10th frame he "cherried" it and finished with a high game of 211.

In the Wednesday Junior Scratch league Bob Doyle fired a 524 to cop top honors.

Two brothers by the name of Phil and Steve Hargrove aren't letting a bit of grass grow under their feet. To these junior division bowlers, investigation and progress are the key words. They have come up with a junior version of the Official Blue Book. This contains everything from a complete list of all bowlers, past and present, that have bowled in the Junior Boys league, to a description of the rules governing their league.

SAN CARLOS POST WINS, 7-6

Stranded 'Ducks' Leave Post 410 Run Behind

Daly City Post 410 had the ducks on the pond but didn't have the buckshot basehit needed to bring them across last Sunday, losing to San Carlos Post 585, 7-6, at Marchbanks Park.

Shortstop Bruzza stopped the local team from tying the tilt in the bottom of the ninth by knocking down Stan Montalbo's infield single. If the ball had gotten through to the outfield, two runners would have tallied rather than the one that did.

Bob Miller started on the mound for Post 410 and struck out 10 men in seven innings while only walking one. He allowed but three hits. He was yanked by Manager Steve Mezzera in the eighth after San Carlos loaded the bases with no outs. Jack Fuertes relieved, allowing two runs in that frame, and an unearned run in the final panel.

Fuertes allowed two hits and walked five while going down to defeat.

Rich Reitz grounded out in the bottom of the ninth but Jeff still had hopes as Miller singled, Mike Rovai walked and Bob With was hit by a pitched bill. Fuertes got on on an error as Miller scored. After Tony Montalbo whiffed, Stan singled with Bruzza knocking the bounder down. Rovai scored on the play but With had to hold at third base. Larry Keeling grounded out, second to first, to end the fray.

Post 410 had 7 hits to San Carlos' 5 but five errors by Mezzera's charges were too costly. Stan Montalbo knocked in three runs with a double and single while Miller also had two hits.

Post 410 meets Menlo-Adobe Post 828 at Menlo at 1:30 p.m. Sunday.

Police League Bowling Tourney Has 2½ Men To Every Gal Entry

Prizes in the Daly City Police Athletic League benefit bowling tournament at Westlake Bowl will be divided between men and women on a ratio of entrants basis, according to a report from the P.A.L. tourney committee today.

In a meeting last week, the group decided on top prize for both sexes and said present entries are running about 2½ men to 1 gal. League members may bowl for their own teams and in the tournament at the same time (which accounts for the heavy ratio).

For the distaff side, the first prizes are: an automatic drier, two ladlies' watches, and a trip to Reno for two.

Males will be vieing for 21' tables teevee, an electric oven and range, two men's watches, one trip to Las Vegas for two, and one trip to Reno for two.

The hundreds of smaller prizes will be ratioed in the same way.

Nearly 800 bowlers entered the tournament in the first four days.

In the men's division, Jack McNelly led with a 697. Other top bowlers were: Garry Moeller, 677; Ray Duffy, 671; Anthony Greco, 675; Ralph Ostergren, 672; and Rich Brewer, 670.

Betty Ostergren led the ladies with a 668. Other high gals were Eleanor Mathews, 648; Helen Vincent, 631; Dorothy Tener, 631; Joanne Olson, 630; Dolly Thielsen, 627; and Lory Adler, 622.

Various Activities Allow Kids 'New Worlds Through Recreation'

The Department of Parks and Recreation announces that its summer program is in full swing on all the Daly City playgrounds with various types of activities going on all the time.

Northridge Park has been holding some exciting types of relay races. The winners of the races were as follows: Running Relay—David Geraldi and Scott Coburn; Hopping Relay—Jeff Jones and Scott Coburn. Striving for the Northridge Park Tetherball championship are Corky Phelps, Howard Fast, Ken Solari, Carol Ann Solari, Jake Williamson and Peggy Ruse.

The "Bobcats" and "Untouchables," two softball teams have been shaping up well at Westlake Park and promise to be strong contenders in the summer recreation league. These two teams may be easily identified by their new green baseball hats with the white "W" on the front.

Class "B" softball team from Crocker School led by last year's veterans Ernie Garay, Bob Keith and Ron D. Maggio, to mention a few, will also be a strong contender for the championship.

The Class "A" softball team from Colma School looks like a real "winner." Some of the standouts have been Danny Luciano, Gary Birch, Ray Marshall and Chuck Kelly. The entire team is mostly composed of last year's class "B" champions and poses a strong threat again this year.

One of the most popular activities this summer has been the arts and crafts program. The children have been doing such things as lanyard braiding, clay modeling, finger painting, and water coloring.

True to the theme of the 1960 summer recreation program, the children of Daly City are beginning to "find new worlds through recreation."

Playdays Here Bring Flock Of 800 Kids

To kick off the summer recreation special events program, the Daly City Parks and Recreation Department held its annual Playday last Friday, at Colma School and Westmoor High School.

All playgrounds in the city reported excellent participation in the events. The Colma School Playday (for all paygrounds from the east side of Junipero Serra boulevard) had 380 children and teen-agers in attendance. The Westmoor Playday (all playgrounds on the west side of Junipero Serra) had 425 children and teen-agers.

This annual event which allows children from all parts of the city to play together and develop new friendships has always been looked forward to by the participants and has always been one of the high spots of the summer recreation program.

The inland red cedar can be identified by its reddish to gray brown bark and small, overlapping scale-like leaves which form sprays.

Holy Angel's Nine Nips PAL, 6-5

Rocky Collins six hit pitching allowed Holy Angels Midgets to nip the PAL nine, 6-5, last Thursday at Colma School's playfield.

John O'Day and Dennis Fisicaro had 2 for 3 apiece to account for half of the Holy Angel's eight hits. The PAL baseballers used three pitchers.

Tom Kunst sacrifice bunt scored Jim Hart from third base with the deciding tally.

Better Albacore Haul Predicted This Year For Boat Fishermen

Party boat fishermen have already had their first crack in nearly two years at swift-moving albacore and may get a few more cracks — if oceanic conditions hold up.

That's the opinion of the experts in the Department of Fish and Game's Marine Resources Operations, headquartered at Terminal Island.

A few albacore had been caught near San Clemente Island by June 22 and by the end of last week at least 500 had been recorded by party boat fishermen. The fish were taken between 10 and 40 miles off San Clemente Island at the extreme outer range of the sport fleet and right where the Department figured they would be.

In all of last year, only 39 albacore were reported taken by sports fishermen and the previous year only 6482 had been caught. These figures are a far cry from the peak years of 1955, 1956 and 1957 when sports fishermen sacked 78,000, 65,000 and 41,000 respectively.

While the initial success off San Clemente is no guarantee of a good albacore season in 1960, the Department has reason to believe the early catches may herald a return to the good days of the recent past. At the very least, say the DFG experts, fishermen should experience successes at least as well as they did off San Clemente last week.

Fisheries scientists concluded that local conditions seem more suitable than they have for the last several years for the fish to move relatively close to shore as the season progresses and come within range of the party boat fishermen.
